Guelph, September 15th, 1924 Editor Herald.

Dear Sir:-In an article in the Herald of September 10th, referring to the life of Mr. William P. chen, centrally located, water in house, Thompson of Guelph, formerly of Draper Street 11p Norval, a statement was made that Mr. Thompson moved from Norval to Guelph two years ago. to were an inspiration to all who I would like to correct that. Mr.

Thompson left Norval in 1900, coming here to work with the Woodyat Foundry people, who later sold to Taylor Forbes Co. where Mr. Thompson had been

Mr. Thompson was always much interested in the news in the "Herald" each week, and especial ly was he interested in reading the articles from week to week written by Mr. L. Grant.
