Obituary

ASHER B. FREEMAN

After an illness of some months, Asher B. Freeman, for many years a highly respected resident of Georgetown, passed away at Toronto General Hospital on Saturday, Sept. 27th, in his 62nd year. His wife predeceased him some years ago but he leaves a son and daughter, Asher and Barbara, to mourn the loss of a kind and loving father. One brother William and two sisters Mrs. W. M. Adams, Sundridge, and Mrs. Geo. Bennett, Georgetown, also remain. The funeral took place from the home of Mr. George Bennett, Georgetown, when the funeral service was conducted by Rev. Mr. Moore, assisted by Rev. Mr. Caldwell. The pall-bearers were R. I. Creelman, A. Hyde, H. Marchment, C. J. Russell, J. M. Skelton and Thomas Spence. The remains were interred in Greenwood Cemetery.

MRS. IRONS

Harriet Elizabeth Irons, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Ballantine Sr. died suddenly on Tuesday night September 30th, at the home of her parents with whom she was visiting.

The circumstances are peculiarly sad and distressing. Returning from Toronto with her parents in excellent health and spirits she was stricken at bed time and died within an hour without regaining consciousness. She was born in Esquesing and spent the early part of her life in Georgetown. She was married in 1889 to Mr. Jas. C. Irons and most of her married life was spent in Toronto and Winnipeg. In addition to her father's family she is survived by husband and five daughters, two of them are married, and three grand-children.

The funeral service was conducted by the Rev. Mr. Caldwell, Pastor of the Methodist Church, assisted by Rev. Mr. Truax former pastor. A beautiful duet was rendered by Mrs. Black and Miss Jean Adams, which was much appreciated.

She was buried in Greenwood on Saturday, the pall bearers being Mr. Walter Irons, John Elliot, John Ballantine jr., Col. Jas. Ballantine, Wm. Berry, W. A. Main

The sympathy of the community was manifested in many ways and was a great source of comfort to the bereaved parents and family.
