Address and Presentation

On Thursday evening, Sept. 25, home of Mr and Mrs. Hamilton Lyons, Union, to bid them farewell prior to their removal to their new home in Georgetown, Rev. Walter Patterson was chairman of M. Tost. the evening and called on Mr. A. McDonald who read the following Tost address:— Dear Mr. and Mrs. Lyons: -Having heard of your intention to re-move from our district and to take up your abode in Georgetown we felt that we could not permit you to take your departure without expressing, in some tangible way, the esteem in which you are held by us.

We regret that we must lose from our midst. Yours has been for many years one of the outstanding families in the community and your removal will create a blank not easily filled. Held in the greatest esteem by all on account of your integrity, your courtesy, your kindliness of heart, your sound judgment and hospitality, you Alear.

have both won the affections of those who know you intimately because of those gifts and graces which adorn your Christian characters, and all unite in the hope that in your new sphere of life much blessing and happiness may still Your removal will be felt keenest in Union Presbyterian Church in which you have always taken a deep interest and which has benefitted much by your wisdom, experience and help. Its members bestowed upon you, Sir, the highest bonor it is in their power to confer by calling you to its eldership, a position of great influence, and which you upheld with dignity and grace; while the W. M. S. found in you, Madam, an carnest and devoted work-

As a token of affectionate esteem we ask your acceptance of these gifts and pray that in your retirement from the George Green with 85 points out active and arduous pursuits of life of a possible 40.
