HOW DID YOU TAKE IT?

Did you tackle the trouble that came your way
With a resolute heart and cheer—ful?
Or hide your face from the light of day?
With a craven soul and fearful? Oh, a trouble's a ton or a trouble's an ounce.
Or a trouble's what you make it. And it isn't the fact that you're lost that counts.
But only, How did you take it? You're beaten to earth? Well, what's that?
Come up with a smiling face. It's nothing against you to fall down here.
But to lie there, that's disgrace.
The harder you're thrown, why, the higher you bounce?
Be proud of your blackened eye! It isn't the fact that you're licked that counts.
It's how did you fight—and why? And though you be done to death, what then?
If you battled the best you could, if you played your part in the world of men,
Why, the Critic will call it good. Death comes with a crawl, or comes with a poonze.
And, whether it's slow or speedy, it isn't the fact that you're dead that counts—
But only, How did you die?
—Edmund Vance Cook.

Obituary

Mrs. MARY COLLINS
The death of Mrs. Mary Collins, widow of the late Mr. James Collins, took place at the home of her niece, Mrs. Jas. R. Duncan, Elizabeth St., on Friday last. The late Mrs. Collins, who had reached the unusual age of 99 years and 6 months, was born in the County of Donegal, Ireland, and came to Canada with her mother and sisters in the early fifties. Mrs. R. Martin of Hamilton, is now the only surviving member of the family. Much of the life of the deceased had been spent in the neighborhood of Norval and Georgetown. The funeral was held from the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Duncan at 10 o'clock on Monday forenoon, Rev. F. W. Mahaffy conducting the service at the house. Leaving here the cortege proceeded by motor to Norval, where interment was made in the village cemetery at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, near which deceased had spent over sixty years of her life, and where is buried her only daughter, who predeceased her many years ago. The pallbearers who were chosen from among her many relatives, were Messrs. Thos. S. Henson and James R. Duncan, Orangeville; Fred Cunningham, Woodstock; John Cunningham, Georgetown; Richard Martin, Hamilton, and James Cunningham, Erin. Many beautiful floral tributes were sent by long-time friends and neighbors of the departed woman.—Orangeville Banner.

Asbgrave

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Ward Huddle, Esquimaux, was invaded on Monday evening, October 13th, by a thery throng of friends in honor of the approaching marriage of their daughter, Miss Jessie, to Mr. Neilson Stark. After playing games for some time the Asbgrave Epworth League and ex-pupils of the Waterloo School presented the surprised young couple with a miscellaneous shower of beautiful and useful gifts. Following this the members of the Asbgrave C.F. and F.W.O. Clubs presented them with a similar shower. Opening the parcels and reading the rhymes and expressions of good wishes accompanying the gifts occupied the remainder of the evening, when lunch was served by the ladies.

Milton

Under the auspices of the Ontario School Trustees and Haldimand Association, an Educational Conference will be held in the Court House, Milton, on Wednesday, Nov. 5th. An interesting program has been arranged. The afternoon session will begin at 1.30, and the evening session at 7.30. Everyone is invited to attend these meetings.

Wallace Davis of Nassagaweya Township, west of Milton, met with an unfortunate accident last Friday afternoon, in unloading grain at the barn. Davis was driving the team on the ropes, when one of the horses fell on him, causing a compound fracture of the left leg between the knee and ankle, the bone protruding through the flesh. Refractor.

Acton

Messrs. J. W. Kennedy & Son, Georgetown, have disposed of their Acton business to Messrs. J. Drummond and L. Latham. These two young men are practical workers and have been employed with the Messrs. Kennedy for some time. They have bright prospects for a successful business future.

There is talk of an injunction being issued to restrain the Council from paying P. Rooney, of Georgetown, the $350.50 voted in connection with the "tin shack" he commenced to erect on Mill Street. It is believed that members of the Council would welcome such action, as a means of relief from a very unpopular situation.—Free Press.

Cataract Company in Trouble

The head office of the Cataract Electric Company, located at Orangeville, is closed due to seizure for debts. The company's power house situated at Cataract, supplies electrical energy to the villages of Milton, Colborne, Erin, Hildburgh, Havelock and Orangeville, in opposition to the Hydro-Sheriff Endacott of Orangeville, acting on a writ issued for the Power Light Devices, Limited, Toronto, has seized all the company's property and equipment. The Ontario County and Sheriff Light-derson of Hampton has a writ similarly in Peel County. The company has been in financial difficulties for some time and the customers are impatiently awaiting developments.

Notes and Comments

PREMIER G. Howard Ferguson, in a statement issued Friday afternoon, declared in effect that the Ontario Temperance Act would be rigidly enforced, in view of the returns from the Plebiscite taken Thursday to determine public sentiment on prohibition legislation. The Premier issued his statement after a protracted meeting of the Ontario Cabinet, which lasted from 11.45 a.m. until 2 p.m. He declared that as he had intimated in his pre-plebiscite speeches, he would enforce the O. T. A. to the fullest extent. He added that there would be most difficulty in enforcing the Act, in view of the increase in "wet" sentiment.

"SHOWING OFF" is not confined to small children. Most of us are conscious of a feeling of irritation or of annoyance as we listen to some acquaintance of ours talking for effect, giving impressions we are sure are anything but correct. Continually people are suggesting by their remarks that they are richer, more popular, or wiser than we know them to be. We do not admire this showing off when we see it in others, and for that reason it might be well to ask ourselves whether or not we are not guilty of the same folly. Are we sincere and straightforward in all we say, or do we seek for effect, and make a deliberate effort to give misleading impressions? If we watch ourselves closely, the chances are that the majority of us shall discover that we are not altogether superior to this silly weakness.

ONTARIO HAS expressed its preference for temperance. The Province as a whole was invited to indicate the Government of the day as to its duty to the people with regard to a moral issue and the people have given their verdict. The next step is one for the Government and it has no easy task before it. Fourteen cities by a majority of seventy thousand have asked the privilege to indulge their appetite for strong drink and this fact will prove a source of worry to the Premier, who will probably be asked to recognize the cities' vote through some form of local option. Such a course would be impossible, since the cities would lack the wish of the country unless if the old man from the rural sections could go to the cities to procure and carry away all the liquor he wanted. Premier Ferguson will have his statesmanship tested to the limit to find the way out of the peculiar situation. It seems no more right for the country to control the cities' appetite than for the cities to control the rural sections. The decision will have to be taken as governing the whole Province, and rural and urban sections must accept the verdict with as good grace as their several feelings will permit.

THERE IS MORE or less reasoning in the following, clipped from one of our exchanges:—The opening of the fall season brings the usual round of church activities, bazaars, bako sales, pink teas, etc. In the cities these functions assume large proportions, with correspondingly simpler affairs in the small towns and villages. "We wonder as the various committees meet to plan these annual events if due consideration is given the local merchant who has to pay express, cartage and taxes on all goods sold. People who make a living from buying and selling commodities which people want should be helped and not hindered by diversion of trade, for it turns the churches look to them for liberal support for all of the various branches of the modern church organizations. Last year in one of our large cities a bishop who saw results in a large way condemned the practice of holding large bazaars which certainly had the effect of depressing trade. Those who pay high rentals for buildings should be supported by his or her own townpeople, providing they carry on in an honorable way. Unfortunately these bazaars are put on near the holiday periods when the dealers have purchased heavy stocks of Christmas goods, which they do not wish to carry over. If faira must be held, should not the committees Stop, Look and Listen before they rob Peter to pay a Paul?

His Arm Mangled

William Treger of Huttonville was taken to Hampton Private Hospital last Wednesday with his right arm badly mangled below the elbow, his clothes catching in the gears of the mangle which he was operating in the wash-line mangle and directing the flesky part of his arm into the machinery.

Five Tons of Bulls Distributed

The five tons of bulls, which were received by the Guelph-Hydro-Township Society recently, for distribution among the members of the organization, were distributed last week. These bulls included large quantities of by-products, bullock, ponies, and others for planting in the fall. This large planting will increase the beauty of many gardens to a great extent during the spring, when these flowers will bloom. The total amount received has been disposed of.—Guelph Mercury.
