Hockey

The first hockey match of the season was played at Stewarttown on Friday night last when Guelph and Georgetown played a tie game, 8-8.

The game which was not a good exhibition of hockey, owing to the lack of condition of both teams, provided no small amount of thrills for the spectators.

The first period of the game was the first period it looked as if the visitors from the Royal City were going to have it all their own way, but the Georgetown team soon dispelled that idea.

At the end of the first period the score stood 3-3. The second period provided the only real hockey of the evening but both teams persisted in handling out heavy body checks and using their sticks as axes.

At the end of the second period the score stood 8-7 in favor of Georgetown. The third period was somewhat mixed up affair when Guelph humped Currie into the boards thereby starting a general battle in which players, managers, referee and spectators participated.

The Guelph manager tried to take his team off the ice but the players, like good sportsmen, played to the finish. Final score 8-8.

In reporting the game the Guelph Mercury has the following: "The Georgetown exponents of the great winter pastime were a hard nut to crack, and in the cracking a few casualties were suffered by the locals. Baker got a nasty crack across the ankle, while Poole drew a game ankle and various other minor bruises.

In the first minor, Duncan, who was guarding the net for the home team, looked like the proverbial sieve, but he got in the way of quite a number of bullet shots later.

The line-up of the teams were as follows: Georgetown - Forwards, Vacey, Brush, Blackburn, Sinclair; defence, Macdonald, Burk, Bush, Currie; goal, Duncan.

Guelph - Forwards, Baker, Leachman, Poole, Schenfeldt; defence, King, Britt, Elshorn; goal, Hebdan.

In the Junior O.H.A. game at Brampton last night Brampton defeated Georgetown by a score of 7 to 3. The game was fast and clean throughout.

Some of the Georgetown boys played their first real game of hockey last night and were troubled a little with stage fright, but will give a good account of themselves later on.

West Toronto will meet Georgetown at the Arena here on Friday night, January 2nd, in an intermural fixture. This is the first game in this group and should be a good one. Don't fail to see it.

A Thousand Stories in Lake District of Manitoba Says Canadian Authoress

Martha Ostensko Gave Best First Novel of Year that Setting

Miss Martha Ostensko, who was the field and prairie girl, resident of the valley from which they had sprung, told the story of a young girl who came to the farmer the world over, in a contest for the prize of a million dollars.

It was during a summer vacation from her university work that I went into the lake district of Manitoba, well towards the frontiers of that northern civilization. The story that I have written is true, waiting to be put into words. Here was the raw material out of which Little Towns were made. Here was human nature stark, unadorned in the convention of a smoother, softer life.

A thousand stories are there still, to write. In the intervals of those years, spent as a social worker in a great city, I often compared the grinding machinery of skyscraper civilization with the cruder, direct society of the frontier. Slowly, as my work among the needy brought me nearer and nearer to the heart of the city, the border line began to be blurred clearly against the murkier background of my work-a-day scene.

"My novel lay back of my mind for several years before I began to write it. In the intervals of those years, spent as a social worker in a great city, I often compared the grinding machinery of skyscraper civilization with the cruder, direct society of the frontier. Slowly, as my work among the needy brought me nearer and nearer to the heart of the city, the border line began to be blurred clearly against the murkier background of my work-a-day scene.

"I was not satisfied with the result and laid the manuscript aside, with no definite purpose regarding it. It was not until spring that I returned to the city and learned of the Curtis Brown contest. It was with diffidence and reluctance that I was persuaded by friends, who thought well of the early draft and its possibilities, to rewrite it in time to submit it for consideration. At best, I felt it was as good as my friends said, it might not be wholly ignored.

"I leave it to the sceptic and pseudo-scientists who argue interminably about the relative influence of heredity and environment to decide the responsibility for what ever merit my story may have. The blood of the Norwegians? The Seven Little Towns? Perhaps - I do not know. No - but I have my own very unscientific opinion. It won't bear stating, but this much may be said of it: It has something to do with magic and fairies and all the other irresponsible, beautiful things that I believe in.
