The choruses and recitations were well rendered. The leading feature was the play entitled "A Hot Day" in which each and every player is to be highly congratulated as was shown by the grand applause they were given at the end of each act.

Several invitations have been extended to these young people to present their play again in different places. Charlie Chaplin also played a prominent part and was heartily applauded.

The Young People of the Methodist church held a social evening on Monday and had a very enjoyable time.
