Total Eclipse of the Sun Jan 24

Don't get nervous if you see the chickens scurrying to their holes at 9 a.m. on January 24th next. Don't imagine the end of the world has come if we are plunged into darkness for about a minute and a half at this hour. A total eclipse of the sun is scheduled for that date and if you do not get up early enough to see it you will never have a chance of witnessing a like event, for we are told that such a thing has not happened to these latitudes for the past five hundred years and will not occur again before another five hundred years has elapsed.

Milton

Mr. D. S. Robertson, who has been confined to his room by illness, is recovering, we are pleased to state.
We understand there are 13 cases of measles and 2 of diphtheria at the Gordon Home. That's a rather bad state of affairs, but it is to be hoped rubbing arms may happen to the youngsters.
Last week Deputy Sheriff W. E. McCready of Milton, and Chief Constable Lee Smith of Burlington, escorted Waill Wilkowicki of Hamilton, to Kingston Penitentiary to serve four years for burglarizing Thompson's general store at Burlington on May 18 last. The prisoner had been confined in Halton County Jail in Milton for the past six months.
One of the surprises of Monday's Municipal nominations was the withdrawal of Beve Hampshire at the Esquimaux nominations. Beve Hampshire's name has been frequently mentioned for the Warden'ship for 1925, and now he is not to be even a member of this year's county council. What happened, W. J. L? It looks now as if Beve McElroy of Georgetown will have a walk-over for the Warden'ship-Reformer.
