Arena Note

If the skaters will kindly leave the ice for about ten minutes on band nights and Saturday nights, or at other times when the bell rings about 9 o'clock, the ice will be scraped. This will make the skating for the balance of the evening much more pleasant and will no doubt be appreciated by the patrons of the Arena.
Ladies Held Successful Sale
The sale of home made baking held in Mr. J. A. Brown's store on Saturday the 17th, under the auspices of the Women's Auxiliary of St. John's Church, Stewartstown, was a decided success and the officers and members of the Auxiliary desire to thank all who in any way contributed to this success.

Norval

Anniversary Services in Norval Methodist Church were largely attended. The splendid messages of Rev. Mr. MacLachlan and the Rev. Dr. Crook were much appreciated. A special feature was the attendance at the morning service of the famous artist J. W. L. Forster whose birth place was Norval and whose father and grandfather were pillars in the early church dating from 1847. Mr. Forster gave a brief commemorative talk.
The choir, consisting of Mrs. King, organist, Miss Stella Greenwood and James Landlaw, rendered pleasing solo and solo parts. The choir anthems were most effectively rendered. Mrs. Watson and Mrs. Lyne took a duet part in the morning.
The offerings were very generous and the day was one that will go down into history.
The Norval Young People's Union have been cordially invited to attend the Anglican Missionary Services next Monday evening. Rev. Canon Sewall will be the speaker.
The members of Knox Presbyterian Church Guild paid a return visit to Norval on Monday evening where they put on a programme for the Young People of that village. The gathering was held in the Presbyterian Church. Mr. D. J. Howell gave a most interesting and instructive address on the coming eclipse of the sun. After the program Norval Young People treated the visitors to a delicious luncheon.

Hockey

Osgoode Hall debated Georgetown Intermediates at the Arena on Friday night last by the score of 7 to 3. The game was clean throughout and Referee Corrigan of Guelph had no trouble in handling the game to the satisfaction of the large crowd of supporters. In the first period the visitors scored three while the Georgetown boys failed in their attempt. Osgoode Hall opened the scoring in the second period and scored two in quick succession while our boys bulged the net for their first counter. Telfer received a bad trip which necessitated his retirement for the balance of period. In the final frame each team succeeded in scoring 2 goals making the score 7 to 3 in favor of the visitors. The teams lined up as follows:—
Osgoode Hall—Goal, Innis; r.d., Sullivan; l.d., Currie; c., McMaster; r.w., Gordon; l.w., Phlxton, subs., Evans and Slaght.
Referee—J. Corrigan, Guelph.

In a Junior O.H.A. fixture at the Arena, Milton, last Friday night Milton defeated Georgetown by the score of 10 to 0. The play was very fast from start to finish and despite the score was an excellent game to watch. The boys came home well pleased with the treatment accorded them in the County Town.
On Monday night the Georgetown Juniors defeated the Juniors from Milton at the Arena by 2 to 1. The teams lined up as follows:—
Milton—Goal, Houston; r.d., Bandy; l.d., Henson; c., Chambers; r.w., Anderson; l.w., Lawry; subs., McMillan and Tucker.
Georgetown—Goal, H. Cole; r.d., King; l.d., Tost; c., R. Beaumont; r.w., Walters; l.w., Burnside; subs., Hawley and Marchmont.
Referee—J. Parr.
Georgetown Intermediates play Osgoode Hall at Toronto to-night. Brampton and Georgetown Juniors meet again at the Arena on Friday night.

Curling Club News

Following is the standing of the various rinks in the Inter-rink Competition of the Georgetown Curling Club.
Skip Played Won Lost
R. Ross 3 1 0
S. R. Grant 3 3 0
N. Tuck 2 2 0
G. Brown 1 1 0
J. R. Wallace 2 1 1
V. Kentner 2 1 1
R. Y. Wemyss 3 1 2
H. R. Mims 2 0 2
M. L. Near 3 0 3
Dr. Marcellus 3 0 3
There are six postponed games to be played which will change the standing of some of the rinks. It is too early though to start picking winners as the competition is only about one third over and the way some of our newcomers are getting on in the game there will be some surprises handed out before it is finished.

You can get your share

One Canadian Dept. Store receives an average of 19000 telephone orders in one day—many of them by Long Distance.
There are smaller stores in smaller towns that receive as large a percentage of orders by telephone.
No matter how small your establishment may be, you can get your share of telephone trade if you organize to handle it and make a determined effort to get it.
If you are one of those ambitious merchants who realize that doing business by telephone is the result of the beginning of a big expansion—count on our hearty cooperation.
