A Prosperous Citizen

The Toronto Daily Star of Monday evening contained a good picture of our respected townsmen and creamery proprietor, Mr. Morris Saxo, who is now interesting himself in an organization which will assist his co-religionists who wish to do so, to train as farmers and locate on Canadian farms. He says Hebrews make good farmers and that at least twelve Toronto Jewish families now want to go on the farm. A prosperous butter manufacturer and farmer now, Mr. Saxo received $40 and a horse for his first 88 months' work as hired man on a farm some years ago when he first came to this country.

"Monstrous Heavens" starring Ralph Valentino. This picture played at a big downtown theatre in Toronto for four weeks at $1. See it in your own town at 85c. Enjoyable Supper at Knox Church. The Shamrock Supper at Knox Church on Friday evening last proved most enjoyable in every way. Supper was served early in the evening and the ladies of the congregation maintained their usual high standard in providing and serving. A delightful program followed supper. Mr. J. B. Mackenzie presiding in an urbane and witty manner. Several out of town artists contributed ably to the program. These were Mesdames Moore, Near and Stewart and Messrs Mann, Ramsey and Mann of Acton, Miss Swindell of Ballinacorney and Mr. Duxberry of London, Eng. The local talent, which is always appreciated, were Mrs. G. O. Brown, Mrs. Rennie, Miss Leavitt, Mr. C. McDonald and Mr. Wemyss.

Interesting Talk on Russia

There was a good attendance at the hall last Thursday evening to hear Baroness de Hueck tell of Russia and her experiences during the great war and revolution. The Baroness is a fine looking lady with a very pleasing and becoming stage manner. Her talk regarding the economic situation in Russia before and after the war, the years of horror and suffering following the revolution and her final escape with her husband after many trying experiences, held her audience spellbound. It was an evening of story from the lips of one whose people had suffered and been misjudged by other nations, but who still hoped through the grace of God to conquer the enemies with in their own domain and some day become a nation worthy the respect of the world at large. The Baroness very graciously answered a number of questions at the close of her talk. There were piano solos rendered by Mr. Charles Kirk and community singing led by Mr. Ralph Ross during the evening. The singing of the National Anthem brought the meeting to a close.

Card of Thanks

On Sunday morning in the Presbyterian Church the Rev. Mr. Dodds preached an impressive far-well sermon to his Mount Pleasant congregation, taking for his text Matthew 5:16, "Let your light so shine before men that they may see your good works and glorify your Father, which is in heaven," emphasizing the importance of our works. We are not those who go back to perdition but those who go on to perfection. The Sovereignty of God is what the world needs today. The greatest fact in our Bible is "God is Love." Our wills are our wills to make them Thine and have we made the most of our lives with our Christian enjoyment and privileges. He referred also to all lives looking forward to the future; to the pleasant memories of the pastorate of Mount Pleasant and exhorted them to trust "all we all come in the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of the Son of God unto a perfect man unto the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ." The sermon "blessed with the well known hymn:

"Ask the Saviour to help you
Comfort, strengthen and keep you
He is willing to aid you
He will carry you through."

Mrs. Samuel McClure of the Mount Pleasant congregation and Miss M. R. Russell of the Norval congregation sang solos.
