This Farmer Knows Where He Stands

HE has a memorandum on the cheque stub of every account—and an entry in his bank book as well—a double check on his business. The incoming cheques or cash are also shown in his bank book. In a flash he can tell when he paid any particular account or when an account was paid to him. His bank book tells him.

He has no need to go to town to do his business if he is rushed. A cheque by mail pays an item or makes deposits almost as quickly as he could do it himself.

Today the safe, efficient, satisfactory method of business is through the Bank.

LIFE'S TRUMP CARD

Laugh and the world laughs with you. Weep and you weep alone. For the sad and earth must borrow its mirth, But troubles enough of its own. Sing, and the hills will answer. Sigh, it is lost on the air, The echoes bound to a joyful sound, But shrink from voicing cure. Rejoice, and men will seek you; Grieve, and they turn and go. They want full measure of all your pleasure, But they do not need your woe. Be glad and your friends are many; Be sad and you lose them all. There are none to decline your comforted wine, But mine you must drink life's gall.

Passion Play April 10th

Probably every one in Georgetown has heard of the famous "Passion Play at Ober-Ammergau" in Bavaria, but few the average person's knowledge of the Play is rather hazy. An excellent opportunity to learn all about it will be given on Good Friday evening, April 10th, when Rev. Dr. Dickie will give an illustrated lecture on it in the Methodist Church. The play is acted in fulfillment of a solemn vow made by the people of that Alpine village in 1684, that if Almighty God would remove a pestilence that was raging among them, they would perform the Passion Tragedy in "Thanksgiving" every tenth year. Dr. Dickie, having visited Ober-Ammergau and conversed with some of the leading actors, and having made a careful study of the whole production, is in a position to speak with authority upon it.

When the play was last acted sixty-six presentations were given between May 9th and September 26th, 1922, each of which took eight hours—four in the morning and four in the afternoon. The preparations for the play called for seven months of rehearsal. Besides, as is commonly known, men who are candidates for the chief roles begin preparations far in advance of that time by raising beards and growing long hair, since wigs and make-ups are not allowed. The Passion Play, it is said, is the only play that can be given in the full light of day. The inhabitants of the village number only about thirteen hundred, and the complete cast for the play comprises over seven hundred, all of whom must be Ober-Ammergauers. Of this number in the presentations of 1922, 124 were soloists or had speaking parts. A large number of women and children were used, especially in the "mob" scenes.

Whereas Anton Lang portrayed for the third time the part of Christ, More than thirty countries were represented by the 518,000 visitors who saw the play the last time it was acted.

Curriers Banquet

Roarla's Game Enthusiasts and Wives Spend Enjoyable Evening

Over fifty local curriers and their wives were present at the annual banquet held in the spacious reception hall at the Arena last Friday night. The occasion proved to be one of the most enjoyable events of the season and displayed that splendid spirit of good sportsmanship which exists among our local followers of the old Scotch game.

At 8 o'clock the gathering got down to a delicious chicken dinner served on tastefully arranged and nicely decorated tables laid in the reception hall. After all had partaken of the many good things provided for the occasion, a rousing competition, and drank in the spirit of good fellowship, an enjoyable toast list was announced. This was interspersed with community singing, selections by the Curriers' Club, consisting of Messrs. W. V. Grant, R. Y. Womys, C. D. Cole and W. Greenwood; solos by Mrs. W. C. Bessey, C. D. Cole and Wm. Brown, and instrumental duets by Messrs Cole and Womys.

In the absence of Lt. Col. G. O. Brown, president of the Club, Mr. Ed. McWhirter, vice president, was the toastmaster of the evening and performed the duties of that office in an able and entertaining manner.

The toast list was as follows:—

"Our Currier Club" proposed by Lt. Dale, response by J. B. Wallace.

"The Roarla's Game" proposed by Ralph Bessey, response by Major Grant.

"The Local Curriers" proposed by Chas. Burnside, response by Robert Roarla.

"The Arena" proposed by J. D. Kelly, response by Ed. McWhirter.

"The Fres" proposed by J. B. Mackenzie, response by Mr. Brown.

"The Ladies" proposed by A. L. Squires, response by J. L. Thompson.

A pleasant feature during the banquet was the presentation by Mrs. E. McWhirter of Ivory Piano Lamps to each of the four members of the winning team in the Inter-Rink Competition, viz.: J. B. Mackenzie, Ted Erwin, A. L. Squires and skip J. B. Wallace.

Mr. J. D. Kelly, the popular and energetic secretary of the Club, was also the recipient of a present from his fellow curriers.

At the conclusion of the toast list an old time dance was enjoyed in the assembly room when many present renewed their youth by willing away an hour to the strains of delightful music supplied by Mrs. W. C. Bessey, Miss Leavitt and Mr. J. B. Wallace.

Everyone was delighted to see our worthy citizens and veteran currier, Major I. Grant, present at the banquet, and enjoyed listening to his reminiscences of curling in bygone days. The Major was a member of the first Curling Club organized in Georgetown in 1869, and is today the only surviving member of that organization. He has taken part in the game for the past 59 years, was one of the most enthusiastic players on the ice during the past season, and it was a rare occasion when the Major did not put his shot where it would do the most good. May he continue to grow young and enjoy the roarla's game in the wish of every citizen.

Mrs. Wm. Miller was the caterer and provided the most splendid menu which was so much enjoyed by all present.

Ashgrove

The young people held their St. Patrick social at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Fisher on Wednesday evening, March 18th. The evening was spent in games and contests suitable to the occasion. Refreshments were served and community singing brought the pleasant evening to a close. All agreed that the evening was far from being "dry," especially the going-home party.

Mr. J. M. Doney, I.P.S., paid his usual spring visit to S.S. No. 3 on Friday last.

A pleasant evening in the form of a surprise party was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Carrie when about seventy of our young people assembled to welcome the bride to our neighborhood. Refreshments and dancing and a delightful lunch, were the chief features of the evening.

The Ashgrove people welcome Mr. and Mrs. George Nurse and family who have moved from Erie to their farm recently purchased from Mrs. Walter Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wilson and Master Eaton were at Carleton on Thursday last attending the funeral of Mrs. Wilson's brother, Mr. A. Tansley.

Terra Colla

Mr. and Mrs. J. Algie were last week presented with an address and silver sugar bowl and silver shaving cup by their friends here prior to their removal to Guelph. The best wishes of their many friends follow them to their new home.

Mr. Ferrier had his foot badly hurt one day last week while chopping wood in Mr. Clancy's bush.

There was a large turnout at the Ladies' Social Hour meeting held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Edge on Tuesday, March 17th. All wore a sprig of Shamrock and a real Irish program was given and enjoyed by all.

Mr. Wm. Hunter, Jr., sent a few days with Durham relatives last week.

A number of our young people were entertained to a euchre party at Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Cranes last week.

Mr. George Townsend of Cheltenham has sold his bush on the 6th line to Mr. R. Clancy.

Milton

Roy Barnes, son of W. W. Barnes of Esquewauque, fell and broke his right arm while at play one day last week.

Charles Gibson of Nelson had his right arm almost severed at the elbow when he fell on a circular saw one day last week.

The first farmer in Milton district to do his spring plowing is W. E. McCready of Trafalgar Township, who began Tuesday. He reports the land to be in good shape. This is several weeks earlier than usual in Halton County.

—Reformer.

Action

Messrs. A. M. Smith and F. McIntosh have engaged in re-finishing of automobile bodies by a new method of air-compressor spraying. News was received here on Monday of the death of Mr. R. A. Rickson, of Campbell's Corners, near Shelburne. Mr. Rickson was for some years a resident of Ballinafad.

Mrs. John R. Kennedy and Miss Minnie E. Nelson have been in Brampton several days during the week visiting their sister, Mrs. Scott, who has been seriously ill. She is now out of danger and convalescing nicely. —Free Press.

Georgetown Talent in the South

We clipped the following from the Tarpon Springs Leader, Florida, of March 3rd:—"The regular monthly supper at the Toronto Club last Friday night was the largest attended of any supper that the club ever had. Following the supper the Canadian members put on a program that was very entertaining and pleasing to the big number of members present. Mr. Frank J. Barber, A.T.C.M., a graduate of the Toronto Conservatory of Music, who studied there under Sig. Francesca D'Anria, a noted Italian maestro, sang three numbers in a baritone voice of great volume and range. Mrs. H. E. Collin, Mr. Barber's daughter, played two piano numbers very charmingly. Mrs. Collin and Miss Elizabeth McMichael rendered two piano duets which were much enjoyed by the audience. Dr. Watson gave a very interesting and instructive address on Canada and her resources.

Boys Fixed

Detective Holding of the Canadian National Railway, Stratford, had three Georgetown lads before Police Magistrate Moore last week on charges of stealing lumber. The cases arose out of the doings of the three boys the previous Sunday afternoon. They were trespassing in the Canadian National Railway station in the absence of any of the officials, and willfully smashed a large pane of lead beveled glass in the office window. The detective rounded up the miscreants. They pleaded guilty and were fined $5 and costs each, and $10 each for the damage they incurred. The Sunday afternoon prank cost them $19.85 each.
