Conservative Club
Visits Georgetown

Members from North Toronto Entertained by Local Association
Some sixty members of the North Toronto Liberal Conservative Association were guests of the local association on Friday evening last. The party arrived on a special rickety car about 7:30 p.m. and headed by a Highlander playing the pipes paraded down Main street and back to the town hall where a largely attended and enthusiastic meeting was held.
The proceedings opened when Mr. Henry Corke, vice-president of the Halifax Association, introduced Mr. W. J. Darby, president of the North East Toronto Association, the latter taking the chair.
The speakers included: Dr. Anderson, M.P. and Mr. George Hillmer, M.P.P. for Halifax, and the following from Toronto: W. F. Ralph, A. A. Jordan, J. M. Skelton, H. H. Ball, B. J. Clarke (president of the Central Liberal-Conservative Association), W. J. Bellon, T. A. Gibson, George Hodgson and James Robertson. The general tone of the addresses was one of confidence that the party would recover the ground lost in the last Dominion general election. The feeling was generally expressed also, that the mingling of members of the two associations had done much to promote a spirit of cooperation.
An enjoyable musical entertainment was put on by the visitors, Messrs. Shaws, Jeffries, E. R. L. Durand, George Hermitage, with Mr. Sleight as accompanist. Mr. Durand responded to a vote of thanks from the Halifax Association, and Mr. C. E. Tinsley invited the Halifax Association to pay a return visit, which invitation was accepted.
At the close of the meeting the visitors were tendered a luncheon, and a jovial social hour was spent before they left for home at midnight after an enjoyable and profitable evening spent with the members of Georgetown Association and their friends.
