Only One Left in Town
Fifty nine years ago yesterday Sgt. Wm. E. Gault and his comrades of the old 20th Batt. left Georgetown for Niagara to repel the Fenian invasion. Of the old guard William is the only Georgetown man that remains today, all the others having gone down long ago. We were pleased to have him call on us yesterday wearing his medal, of which he is justly proud, to celebrate the event of 59 years ago.

Heavy Struck by Lightning
During the heavy electric storm last evening, Mr. John McColl's house on Emory St. was struck by lightning. The lightning ran down the chimney, broke a lamp and a looking glass, scattering fragments of glass over Mr. McColl who was sitting in the kitchen at the time, and disappeared through the wall taking a portion of the shingles with it. The oil from the broken lamp caught fire but was extinguished by Mr. McColl.

W. I. Annual District Meeting
The annual district meeting of Halton Women's Institute will be held in the Arena, Georgetown, on Wednesday June 17th. The morning session will be open at 9 a.m. when the business for the year will be transacted. Afternoon session at 1:30. The speakers for the day are Mrs. Russell of Toronto, on "Music in our schools", while Miss Chapman will address the ladies on "Institute work". All are welcome. 2t

Hailstones at Brantford
A terrific thunder storm, accompanied by giant hail stones swept over Brantford about 9 o'clock on Monday causing damage to the greenhouses of the town amounting to about $50,000, and smashing windows in churches, halls, schools and houses. The storm, which seems to have been concentrated in Brantford, was the worst seen in this district. The hail stones fell on the greenhouses in a barrage that was powerless to hinder. The hail estate, the largest concern in the town, with 34 acres under glass, is the worst sufferer, and it is estimated that it will take 30 or 40 carloads of glass to repair the damage.

Personals

Wedded at Riverbank Farm
Riverbank Farm, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McCollough, near Acton, was the scene of a pretty wedding on Wednesday May 20th, when their daughter Edna Mabel, was united in marriage to Mr. John Clayton Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Wilson, of Acton. At four o'clock, to the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March, played by Miss Gladys McCollough, the bride entered, escorted by her father, and was prettily attired in white georgette, with veil of silk net and orange blossoms. She wore the groom's gift, a gold wrist watch, and carried a shower bouquet of pink roses and lily of the valley. The bridesmaid was Miss Ethel, twin sister of the bride, who wore a white georgette dress and carried sweet peas. Little Annie McCollough acted as the flower girl and ring bearer, carrying a basket of pink sweet peas. Mr. Frank Wilson, brother of the groom, acted as groomsmen. Rev. A. C. Shaw, M. A., of Acton, conducted the ceremony. Following the ceremony the wedding luncheon was served to about fifty friends and relatives who witnessed the ceremony, after which Mr. and Mrs. Wilson left amid showers of good wishes and confetti on a motor trip to Niagara and Hamilton, the bride wearing an ensemble suit of blue gabardine with sand hat. On their return they will reside at Ashgrove.

Farmers' Week at Guelph
The revival of the old time farmers' excursions to the Ontario Agricultural College brought about in June, 1924, by the semi-centennial celebration, was a very welcome break after a few years had slipped around without any such organized picnic.
The college authorities have again set aside a farmers' week, June 9th to 12th, for this year. In order that all shall have an equal chance to see and enjoy themselves, special days have been set aside for certain counties. Wednesday, June 10th, has been allotted to Peel, York, Halton and other counties, and, while it is impossible to organize an excursion, due to the several different routes that might be taken according to the locality in which one lives, yet it is expected that a good crowd from each section will meet at the college.

Personal
Mr. Jno. Cunningham attended the annual meeting of the Directors of the Peel Mutual Fire Insurance Co. at Brantford on Tuesday.
Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hodge of Stewarttown announced the engagement of their youngest daughter Beatrice Maud, to Mr. Calvin Stewart Bailey, son of Mrs. and the late Mr. Bailey of Hamby. Marriage to take place quietly about the middle of June.

Glenwilliams
The pastor of the Methodist church is being assisted by James Dickson of Belfast, Ireland, in a week of preparatory services before entering the United Church of Canada. The evening night and much inspiration and spiritual helpfulness is being experienced. The Brotherhoods are invited to attend the final service by Mr. Dickson on Friday evening, June 5th, at 7:30 p.m. at the Sunday School on Sabbath and will be in charge of the evening Sabbath service, thus concluding the services.
At the Men's Brotherhood last Sunday morning Mr. Adley took the chair and Mr. Jolly of Limehouse gave an excellent talk to the men. The Brotherhood meets at 11 a.m. Special speaker arranged for each service. You are invited. Mr. Papst is quite ill at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Barna-eloagh.
The remains of the late Miss Maudie Norton arrived from Espanola and were buried in the Glen cemetery on Saturday last. The service was conducted by Revs. Douglas and Caldwell.
