OPPORTUNITY

"They do me wrong who say I come no more. When once I knock and fail to find you in. For every day I stand outside your door. And bid you wake and rise to fight and win. Wait not for precious chances pass of away. Weep not for golden ages on the waste. Each night I burn the records of the day. At sunrise every soul is born again!"

Mr. T. McClure and sister, Miss A. J. McClure, with their uncle, Andrew McClure and daughter, May, of Norval, spent Monday, with Mrs. James Hillis and daughter, Mrs. Joseph Hall, at Grand Valley. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Allen, Seventh Line, are busy remodeling their house.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Farnell and son Graham, spent a day last week at Huttonville and Norval.

Mrs. Thomas Wilson, Ninth Line attended the funeral of her mother, Mrs. O'Leary, Toronto, last week.

Limehouse

It is not generally known that through the interest of George Hillier, M. P. P., five thousand speckled trout were placed in Limehouse pond a few weeks ago. Fishing will be discouraged there for two or three years, after which the trout will be a size worth catching.

Mr. Douglas Gowdy left this week on a trip to Great Britain and the continent. He will spend the summer overseas.

Mr. Jas. Nicholl, who recently underwent an operation at Guelph Hospital, is able to be around again.

Bridal Wreaths

The way of a man with a maid is usually the bridal path. Some have a hope chest—others a hopeless case.

Four Men are Sentenced

Provincial Constable Atkins, Georgetown, is a busy officer these days. Friday night he arrested Harvey Fetley, age 20; Charles Hughes, age 25; James Archard, age 24, and Stephen Currie, and brought the quartet to the county jail here. Saturday Police Magistrate Moore sentenced the four to five days in jail for trespassing on the C.N.R. at Georgetown. The prisoners refused to give their addresses.

Three Years in Kingston

Harold Goetz, Victor Goins and Wilfred Hill, sentenced yesterday to serve three-year terms in Kingston penitentiary on charges of assaulting and robbing two Acton farmers, and being escorted to Kingston to day by special constables D. Shewan and R. G. Jasper. Casimir Carerre, the fourth member of the quartette, who was sentenced to St. John's Industrial School at Mimico, is still confined in the County jail, but will probably be taken to that institution in the course of a day or so.—Guelph Mercury.

Was an Officer Like Himself

An incident of a somewhat amusing character occurred on the highway between Acton and Guelph one day last week. The highway officer, whose duty it is to detect speeders and other violators of the Highway Traffic Act, was patrolling the road when a fine Chrysler car came along at a trifling over the 25 mile line. He challenged the driver, requested his name and address, and was about to add a word of caution when the driver revealed his identity as Provincial Constable Atkins, for Halton. Of course, the traffic officer apologized, but Constable Atkins complimented him upon his alertness and punctilious attention to the duties he was sworn to perform. Some other drivers have not been able to present credentials giving them the right of way over the highway, and official blue papers inviting them to court have been the result.—Free Press.

Travelling on the highway between Brampton and Kitchener is somewhat slower since the speed cop has made his appearance.

—Tommy—Father, are kings and queens always good?

—Father—Not always my son; not when their are axes on again them.

—The teacher had been instructing the class on the Prodigal Son. She then questioned them on it, and asked:

"Who was not pleased to see his Prodigal Son come back?"

"Peter, aged six, put up his hand and said: 'The fatted calf.'"

—The young doctor and his friend were sitting at the club window when a richly-dressed woman passed. "There goes the only woman I ever loved," sighed the M.D. "Is that so?" queried the other. "Then why don't you marry her?" "Can't afford it, she's my best patient."
