—Correction—In our Ballinlad correspondence last week regarding the church services, the name of Rev. Dr. Dickie was accidentally omitted. He delivered an excellent sermon on the occasion, after which Rev. Dr. Pringle gave an interesting talk.

—A car was recovered at Huttonville this week. There was great excitement in the village, for $50 had been offered for the recovery of a car with the numbers on this one. The numbers were alright, but the car wasn't the one wanted. The thieves had switched the numbers to a second car—Brampton Banner.

—Georgetown's reliable shoe store. We are pleased to see so many of our customers still calling for McPherson and Dayfoot boots. They are known from coast to coast to be the most reliable made boots in Ontario. We also have other makes. Repairing—We have dozens of customers right in town wearing our half soles over one year. Women's boots half soled and rubber heels $1. Always on the job—J. Roney, the man that made a name for Georgetown for good boots at low prices.

Limehouse Institute

The Women's Institute at Limehouse will hold their regular monthly meeting on Thursday, July 2nd, at the home of Mrs. F. McDowell. The District Secretary is expected to be present and address the meeting.

Sociological Anniversary

Boston Church anniversary services, held last Sunday, were very successful. The church was well filled at both services. Rev. Kenneth MacLean preached two very impressive sermons and the Hamilton Quintette's numbers were very appropriate and well rendered. Mrs. Wilfrid McDonald presided at the organ and, as usual, did her part well. Truly will the anniversary live in the memory of those present for a long time—Champion.
