THE FELLOW WHO'D TIME

With an awful lot to do

The day was over and half the Before this man was through.

That weighed upon his mind, No matter how hungry and tired he felt. He'd always time to be kind

He'd time to jump from his bucye If he thought you looked downcast And tell you the weather was glor-That summer had come at last ;

And spin you a couple of funny And leave a smile behind -It made him five minutes late of

But still, be'd time to be kind. He never had time to cherish grudge, Such things soon sickened . There never was room for weed to Krow

In the soil of his crowded mind He never had time to think of And so he never will find The shrine that memory dedicates To the fellow who'd time to be

SLANG IS A PART OF the English language which has no solid foundation and, therefore, should be avoided by all Circleites. When we are talking to a chum we often cannot think of a word, just at the time, to express our feelings, and we use a slang expression and think no more about it. In this way we do not enlarge our vocabulary of good English. Our language is beautiful, and we should try to find words in it which will mentioned date the said executrix will who died on or about the twenty-fifth day of June, 1925, at the said Township of Esquesing, are required, on or before the fifth day of September, to send by gost prepaid or deliver to the undersigned, solicitor for Annie E. Tracy, the executrix of the estate of the said surnames, addresses and descriptions, the full particulars, in writing, of their claims, a statement of their accounts and the nature of the security, if any, held by them.

And take notice that after such last mentioned date the said executrix will try to find words in it which will mentioned date the said executrix will express our thoughts. Every time we use slang we tear a hole in our language, and before the hole gets too big we should mend it by finding the right word. The English not be liable for the said assets or any fect as we possibly can.

The first batch of last winter's furs brought from the Far North by the steamer "Distributor," from Aklavik, has arrived at Edmonton, Alta., and is valued at approximately $1,000,000. Good entehes of furs were reported throughout the Sockeye salmon fishing around Vancouver, B.C., for the first three weeks of the current season, while not as active as last year, has, so far, resulted in fairly good catches. The latest reports indicate a catch to date of 55,000 casés, which is 2,000 cases less than last year.

While the members of Dean Sinclair Laird's party of achool teachers from Ontario is returning East from their tour of the country the party of British teachers, who landed in Canada recently, is now travelling through the West on a special Canadian Pacific train to gain knowledge of the country and information concerning its resources.

Construction of the half million dollar storage and power dam on the Muskosh River, authorized at its last session by the Ontario Legislature, has been commenced. The proposed work is designed to control the flow from the Muskoks Lakes basin and will enable the linking up of power development in that district with the Eugenia-Severn system.

Passenger traffic over Western Lines of the Canadian Pacific Railway to date this summer has been particularly heavy, and a large number of special trains and special cars being operated for British, Canadian and American tourists. Lake side and summer tourist travel to the annual exhibition at Saskatoon and other Western points required the operation of special trains.

Construction of one of the largest and most modern departmental stores at Winnipeg, Man., by the Hudson's Bay Company will be proceeded with immediately, according to an announcement by Mayor Webb of that city. A start upon the company's building programme here was assured, stated Mayor Webb, with the passing of a by-law by the City Council providing for a memorial boulevard flanking the Hudson's Bay property.

During the first half of August we important Ontario railway towns celebrated their Old Home Week and held pageents illustrative of their local histories and industrial activities. These were North Bay and Smith Falls, both of which held C.P.R. Days and were the meeting points for thousands of railroad men, who assisted in the pioneering work, of the districts. The Old Home Week at North Bay marked the graduation of that town to full-fledged of the late G. M. Bosworth, chairman Canadian Pacif'c Steamships, was attended by E. W. Beatty, chairman and president or the Canadian Pacific Railway, and nearly all the directors and executive officers of the company. An impressive and dignified procession followed the ceremony, a cortage being formed by the Company's police and officers and men from the crews of Canadian Pacific steamships.

A party of thirty prominent American society people, scientists and artists succeeded recently in blazing a new passage along the Wolverine pass across the northern Canadian Pacific Rockies with the Trail Riders of the Canadian Rockies. The Riders this year have many famons men among them and six separate countries are represented. Tweaty of the members weer gold and enamel buttons, showing that they have ridden 2,500 miles along the
