Fire Drill Test At School
The fire drill test at the Public School on Monday, made by Chief Tost and members of the Brigade, was not as satisfactory as a year ago. From the time the Chief rang the alarm until the school was empty 1 min. and 30 seconds had elapsed, while last year it just took 68 seconds. Notwithstanding this fact the performance on Monday was very creditable.

Committee—Messrs. Eddie Gibbons, Clarence Walters, Chester Laird. The meeting on Friday evening is under the auspices of the club.
United Choir Entertained On Thursday evening last the members of Georgetown United Church choir were entertained at the home of Mr. Wm. Gowdy, in the early part of the evening was spent in music at the home of Mr. Gowdy. Refreshments were served. A hearty vote of thanks was tendered to Mr. Gowdy and little Miss Gowdy for their very kind hospitality and the enjoyable evening provided.
Elmgate
The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Giffon, was the scene of a quiet autumn wedding on Tuesday, Sept. 29th, when their eldest daughter, Gladys Jean, became the bride of Joseph Leslie Fisher, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. W. W.
Fisher, Georgetown. The bridal party entered the drawing room to the strains of Lohengrin's March played by Miss Florence, sister of the bride. The ceremony was performed under an arch of evergreens and white asters, by Rev. H. Calder, pastor of Ash-grove United Church, in the presence of only the immediate relatives, (the groom's grandmother of 84 years being an honored guest) and a few intimate friends. The bride, given in marriage by her father, was becomingly gowned in white tulle with veil and carried a bouquet of carnations and orange blossoms and carried a bouquet of sweetheart roses. She wore a pearl necklace, the gift of the groom. The bride was attended by the groom's sister, Miss Isabel, who wore a dainty frock of coral georgette over satin, and carried a bouquet of carnations and maiden hair fern, while Thomas Giffon supported the groom. During the signing of the register Mrs. Harold Lyons sang sweetly "Until." After receiving the congratulations of their friends the bride and groom left for the dining room where a dainty meal was served, the decorations being in yellow and white with flowers so harmonious. Later Mr. and Mrs. Fisher left for a trip by motor, the bride travelling in a coons brown, satin crepe dress with fur trimmed coat and hat to match. On their return they will reside at Lot 10, 5th line, Esquesimaux.

Received Patient Injured
Last Saturday morning as Wm.
Orr mechanic in O'Neill's garage was working under a car, a link in the block and tackle chain broke and let the body of the car partially down, painfully bruising and cutting Mr. Orr about the face.
Fortunately he was not seriously injured and will soon be back to welcome customers again.
Fire Prevention Week
This is Fire Prevention week, and Friday October 9th is Fire Prevention Day. A special appeal is issued to request of every fire owner or other conditions that might give a fire a start, as well as to educate the public to be careful as regards anything that might cause a fire. Fire loss is everybody's loss, and everybody is responsible in some degree. The great majority of fires might be prevented through the exercise of ordinary carefulness.
Celebrate Golden Wedding
On September 30, 1876, at Burlington, Isabelle Alton of that town was married to Archie McGibbon, of Nassagaweya, by the Rev. Mr.
Minnow. The couple have four children, Mrs. M. J. Carlton, Esquimaux; Mrs. R. S. Hutchison, of Dunlop; Miss William of New Westminster, B. C., and Archie jr., of Winnipeg, Man. It was impossible for any of the four except Mrs. Carlton to attend the anniversary on Sunday, and on that account the celebration was a quiet one. On Saturday Mrs. McGibbon's two sisters, Mrs. Cline and Alton, and her niece, Miss Ethel Cline, all of Burlington, her nephew, Lieut. Col. George A. Cline, of Toronto, Mrs. Carlton and other friends gathered at the residence of Dr. Dickie, where there was the presentation of a silver tea set from Mr. McGibbon's ten fellow officials, of whom seven were present.
Judge Elliot gave the address, School Inspector Denoyes made the presentation, and the remaining five spoke briefly in turn. All congratulated Mr. and Mrs. Mc-Gibbon and wished them many happy returns of the anniversary.
Mr. McGibbon was taken by surprise, but made a neat speech of thanks for his wife and himself.
On Sunday a great many relatives and friends called to offer congratulations from Burlington, Toronto, Palermo, Esquimaux and Milton.
Milton Champion.

Millon
There is much dissatisfaction here and at Cayuga with an announcement of the dropping last Monday of the C.P.R. train which left Milton for the east at 9.30 a. m.
Thirty High School pupils travelled on it. A deputation has been at Toronto this week asking that either the train be restored or an oil-burning car take its place.
Nothing has been settled and Resve Agnew of Nassagaweya, says he will bring the matter before the Dominion Railway Commission.—Champion
