Married 63 Years Received Congratulations from

The Advertises of Rugby, Eng. land, under date of Nov. 7th, contaus the following, which refert to a first cousm of our esteemed townsman Mr. A B Castell

King and Queen

Hearty congratulations showered on Tuesday upon Mr and Mrs. Reuben Castell, of 229 Clifted Road, Rugby, who are colobrating a remarkable event, the 69 auniver sary of their wedding, which took place at Clay Yelvertoft on Nov ember 4th, 1861. They are 85 and 81 years of age respectively, and were both born at Yelvertoft, a village in which they have spent nearly, the whole of their lives. Somo forty years ago Mr. Castell farmed at Yelvertoft under the Earl Spencer, and retained this farm for some years after removing to Elkipgton in 1891, to take over a farm, but retired about pleven years ago, later removing to to Rugby. Mrs. John Lamont, of 46 Bath Street, Rugby, is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Castell On the occasion of the celebration Mr. and Mrs. Castell received the following telegram from their Majesties: -The King and Queen sincorely congratulate you and Mre. Castell on the 64th anniversary of your wedding, and trust that you are both in good health and spending a very happy day."

Norval

Monday night at the Norval Young Peoples' Society was "Educational Night" and not in name only. Listening to the ten subjects given by the different membors, one realized that both time and thought had been given in the preparation of the subject assigned

Mrs. Jack Ismond and Mr. D. Ismond - delighted the audience with their piano and violin duets. An Instrumental solo by Mrs. appreciated. Our President being absent Mrs. S. D. McClure took charge of the entire meeting.

Rev. Dr. Kyle will be in charge of the Devotional Meeting which will beheld in the Anglican Church on Monday the 21st of December. Latern slides will be used illustra "Xmas throughout the World. The Norval United . Church Young People's Society held their regular meeting in the basement of the church on Monday evening Dec 14th when a good crowd turned out to learn about our mis sion field in Angola, West Central ! Africa. The meeting was in charge of our 2nd Vice-Pres., Miss Florence Malcolm who handled this subject in a very pleasing man per. She explained the mission on black-board all were able to follow her as she pointed out the dif ferent mission stations in Angola. At the close of this address Miss Greensword sanga solo, "In the Garden" in her pleasing manner. This was followed by a short song service of old time hymns. Selections by our Young Men's choir. An orchestra composed of Mr. Porcy Laidlaw, violin: Mrs. Harold Lyons, auto harp: accompanied by Mrs. Watson, planist, favored the gathering with some very enjoyable and bigh class numbers. This ended a very well spent evening. The next meeting will be social night and on account of the Christmas Entertainment on Dec. 21st, will be held the following Monday Dec. 28th at 8 p. m. This meeting will be taken by Mrs. Watson and we are assured of a splendid night. The Norval United Church Sun day School entertainment will be held next Monday evening, Dec. 21st. Songs, Dinlouges, Drills etc. by the children. Don't miss this Hou W. E. N. Souchar, K.C. the Ontario Laboral Leader in ad arrasing the members of the UNA emphasized the advantage members had on account of their age, and stated that their oppor tunities were before them, if only taken advantage of. Canada was a young democratic country, and the young citizens of Canada with ideals should be liberal and should demand and work for progress. The Club idea was the proper one, because man was a social being, and as politics is the science of government, therefore the Govern ment is over all the people, and the members should study social, economic and political questions and propare themselves for their

He said that formerly there was Liberal Press, which gave information to the people, and editorially gave a guide. But these sources were not now available as the newspapers had been supplant ed by radio, picture shows, and the the banquet. demands of business were looked upon by the papers as the guiding course for them. He said that it was regrettable that in a young and growing country, such as Canada, there was really no Liberal Press to guide the way and to teach the lessons of democracy. Speaking of the present Provinnial Government, which was elect ed in June 1928, with a majority of about 45, he said that it was a servative Government. The Govgrament dictates its policies to the members and the members are abliged to follow. The Prime Minister, when Minister of Lands and Forests in the former Government, said that be had acted "rouardless of that regulation" when giving evidence before the timber commission. This seems to be his attitude of mind. It was exempli-
