INSTALLATION HALTON CHAPTER R.A.M.

29th December, 1925.
As from the steeple sounds o'er all
The mystic High XII. hour, to Masons known,
From labor to refreshment summoning
all Companions of the Chapter by its call.
To meet in harmony, with mirth and song,
To pass the time with speeches short or long,
To toast our guest, to welcome one and all
Who celebrate with us our annual festival.
For thus it is, our Constitution calls
That at a stated time in every year
A brother of experience be installed
To preside o'er our Convocations here.
Their suffrage, "Beatty," thus has fallen on you
To assume the sceptre of the princely chair.
Most Excellent Companion and a brother true,
Well skilled in art of compass and square.

Norval
Now that the holidays and elections are over we settle down to the old routine with many resolutions for the New Year.
Our school has reopened with Miss Max and Miss Malcolm in charge.
Teachers of the Toronto Public School Staff who spent the holidays at their home and have returned to the city are Misses R. and H. Russell, Miss Sarah Early, Miss R. H. McPherson and Miss Bessie Laird.
Mrs. Walter Patterson of Stayner, spent a few days at "Inverholme" calling on a number of the old friends here and in Georgetown.
The Rev. R. Burdett of Toronto preached an able New Year sermon in the Presbyterian Church on Sunday last. Mr. George Goflop of Windsor who was spending the holidays with his parents sang a suitable solo.
The first meeting of the New Year of the Norval Young Peoples Society took the form of an "Old Time-Night" and social evening. After the opening exercises, the audience which filled the school room of the Church, were treated to the best programme of the season. Old time songs and costumes dating back a century. Recitations by Mr. L. Greenwood and Mr. Harold McClure were much appreciated. At the close of the programme a social hour was enjoyed by all. Miss Robina Leslie will have charge of the meeting next Monday evening which will be "A Night with the Poets."
We extend congratulations to our representative at Council, Mr. George Cleave.
The Norval United Church Young Peoples Society held their regular meeting Monday evening Jan. 4th at 8 p.m. The subject "Does the condition of the body affect Character?" was ably taken by Mrs. Guy Wilson. Scriptural readings by Mrs. Clifford McClellan and devotional exercises by Rev. Mr. Douglas.

Card of Thanks

To the Electors of Esqueping:—Ladies and Gentlemen, I hereby convey to you my sincere thanks for the splendid vote you gave me in the Township Municipal Elections on Monday last, and especially in Ward three. May you all have a happy and prosperous New Year.—Thomas Bird.

Your merits and abilities are such as qualify you for a post so rare, and grace by your presence, and we trust
That you may long be spared to fill the chair.
For, like the ascent of the winding stair,
The road to knowledge laborious is, and slow,
But patiently and assiduously you've climbed,
And even higher yet we hope you'll go.
Some few have gone before you o'er the road,
A band of stalwarts, in the days of yore,
Corke, Meir and Cameron, good men all and true.
Reflecting credit on "Two-thirtys" four.
Their labors have not been in vain, we know,
And may the glorious work by them begun
Be carried on successfully by you in Haltom Chapter in the year to come.
