Breeding Karakula

W. J. Trathen, of Calcdon Township, is meeting with good success in the raising of Karakul (Persian Lamb) sheep, having at the present time a flock of ninety-two purebreds and cross-breds. It is only three years ago since Mr. Trather, entered the business. He has two purebred rams which were purchased from I Crowe, of Toronto, Teddy Romanoff, 6 years old, valued two years ago by his owner at $2,000, and Nicholas, years old. These rams were bred by the Eastern Karakul Sheep Co., of Nova Scotia, and are from imported stock from Bokkara, in Russian Turkestan. Mr. Trathen has several purebred ewes that he purchased in New Brunswick, these being sired by the imported ram. Peter the Great.

Toast 1926 From Top of Pyramid

In the land of sand and camels, where swarthy, white-robed shelks hold sway, the party touring round the world on the Canadian Pacific liner Embrese of Scotland welcomed the New Year in camp on the vast Sahara dessert. But seven adventurous spirits, four young ladies and three men from the United States, left their companions and climbed way up to the summit of the Great Pyramid. The climbers, who decided that the most advantageous way to see 1926 arrive in its swaddling clothes would be from on bigh, were Ida and Katherine Kluney, of Albany, N.Y.; Mildred Campbell of Augusta, Ma.; Helen Horner, of Berkeley, Calif.; Harold Bonefield, of Huntington, Long Island; George -Longnecker, Cincinnati. and Phelps Adams, of Maplewood, N.J. Parties were also made up for visits to the Upper Nile, the ruins of Thebes, and Latror, the Valley of the Kings, where the tomb of Tutankhamen was discovered.
