Mayor of Medicine Hat

An old Georgetown boy in the person of Isaac Bullivant is now Mayor of Medicine Hat. He was elected by a good majority over his two opponents in the recent municipal elections in that thriving western city. Mr. Bullivant is a son of the late Thomas Bullivant and nephew of our respected townsmen Messrs. Isaac and William Bullivant. He spent his boyhood days in Georgetown and went West over twenty-five years ago. Referring to his election the Medicine Hat News says:—"The people's choice, Mr. Bullivant, is a citizen of long standing and high repute in business circles, and has had previous experience on the city council."

Prabel - Rigby

A delightfully pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. Rigby on Saturday last when their only daughter, Helen Winifred was married to Mr. Irwin August Prabel of Detroit, in the presence of a large gathering of friends, many coming from distant points in the U.S. for the occasion. The home was very tastefully decorated, the prevailing colors being deep pink and white. The bride looked charming in peach georgette over satin heavily beaded, carrying a bouquet of pale mauve orchids, pale pink roses and lily of the valley, and was attended by Mrs. Sharp of Pittsburg, pretty cousin of the bride as Matron of Honour, exquisitely gowned in blond georgette over satin and carrying a bouquet of pink sweet peas and roses. The groom was supported by his brother Mr. Arthur Prabel. The bride entered on the arm of her father to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march played by Miss Jessie Tollesroy of Toronto. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Percival Mayes under an arch of flowers and ferns. Mrs. E. Rigby, mother of the bride was attired in black georgette over black and white and Mrs. Prabel the groom's mother wore black satin. The guests included Miss Wietee of Detroit and Miss Wiley of Perry Point, Maryland. Following a buffet luncheon served by Mrs. Stone of Toronto, Mrs. Denison, Miss Mildred Flock and Miss Irene Thompson. Mr. and Mrs. Prabel left by motor for Hamilton en route for Detroit, so successfully ending the confetti laden fiesta that no description of the bride's travelling gowns can be given. The two charming junior attendants were Miss Betty and Miss Margaret Denison.
