After the address the minister of the congregation proceeded to ordain and induct into the eldership of the church four men recently elected to that office by the congregation. He narrated the steps which made the election of elders necessary and then called upon Messrs. Geo. Mino, John Newton, Harding Price and Thomas Appleyard to rise, to make their vows and to receive from the church the authority of the eldership. Thereupon the large congregation assembled which taxed the capacity of the building arose and the minister and session of Knox Presbyterian Church Georgetown solemnly by prayer and the laying on of hands ordained them and inducted them to that office extended to them the right hand of fellowship and called upon them to share the administration and service of the church.

On Monday evening a concert was given in the church, under the auspices of the choir and in support of the organ fund. Mr. H. Hink and his minstrel group greatly delighted the audience with jokes, songs and dialogues. Little Lorraine Wilson of Acton sang "Life" and "Pal of my dreams." Mr. Gishy and the sailor-maid sang of sailor-life and the popularity of the sailor, while Mr. Hale and several of his minstrels sang many of the popular songs of the day. The whole evening was greatly enjoyed and indicated something of the time and labor required, and among many responsible for the success there may be mentioned in particular Mr. Samson Gishy the chief executive of their leader at Limehouse, Mr. Hale and Mrs. W. C. Bessey who prepared the minstrels. The ladies of the congregation served refreshments and after many expressions of appreciation to the entertainers and the ladies, a delightful evening was concluded.
