Moving From Town
Many citizens will deeply regret the removal of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Corke and their son Robert Corke from our town. Mr. Corke has been connected with Georgetown industrial life for the past eleven years and has made many friends in town. He and his family were "active workers in St. George's church, while in Masonic circles Mr. Corke stands high in the esteem of the members of the craft, having a short time ago been elected to the honorable position of Grand Superintendent of Wellington District No. 4, of Royal Arch Masons. Both Mr. Corke and his son Robert have joined the Peanant organization. Mr. Corke is going to St. Hyacinthe, Quebec while Mr. Robert Corke will be assistant to the manager in the carding and spinning department at Paris. May health, happiness and prosperity be theirs in their new homes is the sincere wish of their many Georgetown friends.
