The men of St. George's Church upon learning of Mr. Corke's decision to accept a position in St. & Hyacinthe, Que., arranged a farewell-meeting in the school room the evening before his departure. Owing to the very short notice it was impossible to get in touch with all the men of the congregation. Everyone, however, who could be quickly reached attended and all expressed the sincerest regret at the very great loss our church and people are sustaining in the removal of the Corke family. Mr. Corke was presented with a club hag and Mrs. Corke with a bouquet. On Thursday evening after choir practice, the choir presented Mr. Bob Corke with a fountain pen. Bob is a good fellow and the choir members sincerely regret him leaving. Of course Bob is not going so far away, just to Paris, Ontario, and it is understood that week end visits to Georgetown may be looked

H. S. Cadel Inspection

The High School Cadet corps was inspected yesterday by Captain Edwards of Toronto. He expressed himself as well pleased with the drill. Certainly the Cadets presented a fine appearance-and did their work well, considering the short time there has been this season for outside drill. Captain Edwards has a gonial manner and is popular with the cadeta. He asked for the school yell and he got it with a vigour. However, be asked the boys if they wanted to keep it a secret, if that is why they whispered it like that. Then they did give it. They almost burst their tunics. It was a yell.
