MONEY When Money is Needed

All men are conscious of certain obligations for which they must make provision.

For every requirement of personal finance Life Insurance provides a solution. But, as each man's obligations differ from those of his neighbor it is necessary that each choose that form of insurance best suited to his individual requirements.

Each form of Insurance Policy has advantages designed to provide for different needs. It will be a pleasure to explain those differences to you.

THE BRIDGE YOU'LL NEVER CROSS.

It's what you think that makes the working of a bridge a mystery. You may see a bridge and think it's just a pile of stones and concrete. But it's not. It's a masterpiece of engineering. It's a work of art. It's a bridge you'll never cross.

NORVAL
The Ladies Aid of the United Church has had a most successful year last week, and marked the event by witnessing the baptism of Mrs. Campbell, Vice-President of the church. Mrs. Campbell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Clarridge, and Bruce Mercer, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Wardlaw, was baptized by Rev. W. H. Douglas, pastor of the church, gave an inspiring address before administering the rite of baptism.

The new officers are: President, Mrs. W. Campbell; Vice-President, Mrs. Charles McLaughlin; Secretary, Mrs. R. Watson; Treasurer, Mrs. J. N. McLaughlin; Convener of committees, Mrs. R. McLaughlin; Missionary, Mrs. Guy Wilson; refreshment, Mrs. James Hyatt; Program, Mrs. Laura Cleaver; Works, Mrs. Mow and May, Organist, Mrs. Frank Huestis.

Mr. Douglas came to the church to find it in a run-down condition, except upon the ministrations of student preachers who had to be absent a great deal from the church. The congregation recognized at once his capacity as an organizer, fell into line at once as he got the Sunday School, choir and other organizations organized. Mr. Douglas has supported his wholeheartedly in whatever scheme of development he proposed. From a congregation of from 15 to 20, each Sunday now sees an attendance of 160. Due to a large measure of Mr. Douglas's ability as a preacher. Where there was practically no school, there is a prosperous Sunday School of 20. There is a choir, nine organized classes, presided over by many enthusiastic workers.

The Young People's Society is an individual organization of 60 members, the young people of the church formerly being allied with an organization drawing its membership from three churches. There is a Ladies' Aid of 38 members, organized by Mrs. Douglas, which is a considerable asset to the church.

Mrs. Douglas, as a teacher in the Sunday School, a worker in the Ladies' Aid, and a generous contributor to the programs of the Y.P. Society, has been greatly missed. Two talented sons, both able to play and sing, have also contributed generously of time and talent, both having dedicated their lives to the Master's vineyard.

To whatever corner of the vineyard they will carry with them a rare and valuable contribution, and prove a blessing to the church in which they are installed.

Notes and Comments

HOW VAINGLY we, of the growing world, seek the pleasures of the past it matters not how quickly the mind reverts to the scenes of long ago, they are gone beyond recall, and seek as we will, the haze of yesterday can be found only in the wistful realm of imagination, and even then we glimpse but the shadow of what has been. But the present is ours, with all its golden opportunities and its wonderful possibilities.

A CHANGE, of which every municipality in Ontario will approve, in the law regarding indigent was made in the closing hours of the last session of the Ontario Legislature. Hitherto the maintenance of indigent patients in hospitals has been charged up to the municipality given by the patient as his place of abode, and the onus of disproving the charge lay with the municipality. In future the charge will be made against the County and the County Council will determine among themselves to which municipality the patient belongs. At the present time much of the money spent by Acton for relief is for patients in hospitals, some of whom have had a very brief residence in the town.

A LITTLE MORE slowly on the county roads and much more slowly in the towns and villages. Why should not every owner or driver of a car adopt this rule? Absolutely no objection to traffic regulations and not merely when one is afraid of being chased by the police in a race which could be adopted and enforced strictly without causing any reduction in the pleasure of the drive.

THE PRACTICE of developed among certain Ontario newspapers of watching Portmouth penitentiary for the release of prisoners who have been connected with notorious crimes. These men coming out have no doubt resolutions to make a new start in life, and the broadcasting of their release on parole or otherwise might very well be considered a handicap to their welfare. Once the ends of justice have been met, it is nobody's business as to the plans of a released prisoner, providing he is out to make a good clean start.

MOTORISTS contemplating entry into the United States will be particularly interested in the change of regulations just announced by the United States consulate. Under the new regulations motor cars can enter without taking out formal papers instead of only by a 28-day permit. Motor cars going in for from three to six months are required to be protected by a bond, the minimum amount of which must be the duty on the car. Those who contemplate being over six months in the United States without their touring cars must be provided with a consular invoice.

WHEN ONE NOTES that last week potatoes sold for $2.50 per bag it calls for comment. What is the explanation? There may be several reasons, probably partly a shortage in the yield last summer of which speculative buyers took advantage by buying up the stock of potatoes in the fall when many farmers were not able to carry them over and were glad to sell. Also a scarcity might be due to the long winter we have had, making it difficult for those holding potatoes to market them. However, a shortage cannot be held up very much longer for they deteriorate very rapidly at this time of the year. Anything that would close the trouble quickly is that people stop using them for a time. The winter of last year potatoes would be dumped on the market in a hurry before it was too late, lest they come into competition with the new crop, which puts them out of the running.

A BILL, which has passed the Ontario Legislature at its recent session has special interest to married people; it amended the laws which require a man to support his wife and children, and gave him the right to make such provision for her as his circumstances may permit at the time of his death. It would prevent a man cutting off his wife in his will. "At the present time a memorandum upon the Fisher bill explained, 'a man is bound by law to provide for his wife as long as she lives. He is under no legal obligation to provide for her after her death. If he dies without leaving a will, she shares in his estate as provided by law. If he makes a will, except to retail estate, he can leave all his property to whomever he wishes. He may be worth one million dollars in bonds, and yet die poor, and without leaving his wife one cent. The bill introduced provides that when a man dies leaving a will and an estate, the court may, on application, make provision out of the estate for his wife."

MILTON—Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Fox, of Palermo announce the engagement of their youngest daughter, Olive, to Harold Batstone, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Batstone, of Hamilton, the marriage to take place on May 24th.

On Tuesday evening Miss Lauchette Featherstone, younger daughter of W. B. Featherstone, of Milton, and Miss Cissy Drysdale, of Hornby, graduated from the nurses' training school of Guelph General Hospital. Miss Featherstone carried off the prize for general proficiency in her class. The graduation took place in the College Institute, after which the class and their friends were entertained at the nurses' residence. Quite a number of Miss Featherstone's Milton friends attended the occasion.

Last week, on Wednesday, H. B. Cox was hurt on the course of the Milton Golf and Country Club. He was watching and standing too close to Dr. H. A. McColl, who was driving and did not see him. At the end of the swing the driver struck Mr. Cox over his left eye and stunned him. Blood vessels in the eye were ruptured and the doctor said the eye would be struck squarely its sight would have been destroyed, and had the temple been hit the blow would have been fatal. As it was, Mr. Cox was badly disfigured, but he is doing well under the doctor's care and will be no serious result from the accident—Champion.

The Dog Tax and Sheep Protection Act has been amended this year so as to give sheep owners a greater protection. The amendments are intended to help to do away with useless and homeless dogs, which are in most cases, the greatest trouble makers.
