Child is Drowned
 The tragic death of fifteen-month-old Joy Eleanor Hayward, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Hayward of Hornby, who was drowned in a creek which runs directly in front of the Hayward farm. Unseen by her parents, the child slipped into the water and was drowned before assistance could be rendered. The farmhouse of Walter Hayward is situated at the top of a hill, at the base of which runs the creek in which the baby lost its life. "Little Joy" Eleanor was the youngest of ten children.
