The Bridge You'll Never Cross

It's what you think that makes the world
Seem sad or gay to you;
Your mind may color all things grey
Or make them radiant too.
He glad to-day, he frowns and sighs,
Waste neither time nor thought about
The bridge you'll never cross.
There's useful work for you to do,
For hand and brain and heart;
There's urgent human service, too
In which to take your part.
Make every opportunity
A work with gain, not loss.
The best is yours, so do not fear
The bridge you'll never cross
If life seems dull and difficult,
Just face it with a will;
You do not have to wait alone
Since God is with you still.
Be one with courage toward the goal,
With Truth your shield and armor;
Be strong, look up and just ignore
The bridge you'll never cross.

SUPPORT FOR THE FAIRS

An enthusiastic supporter of fairs and exhibitions has described these institutions thus: "Fairs are the time-honored means of development of agriculture and the progress of industry and the changes in style and customs wherever they are held. They are like a most important element in our educational system, and they contribute to the development of agriculture and other industries in Canada; but it is easily seen that they are unimpaired in their progress of industry and the changes in style and customs wherever they are held.
