September Road and Gun

A collection of articles of real sport in various parts of the Dominion sums up the contents of the September issue of Red and Gun, the Canadian sport magazine, which is just published. An interesting article on some moose experiences, principally in Eastern Canada, by William J. McNulty appears followed by an amusing story of a British Columbia trip, "Four Fish," by G. J. Broderick. Bonnydale Dale in this latest issue deals with some experiences, "Living at Close Quarters With the Moose of Nova Scotia," J. W. Winslow writes an interesting study of the Saw Whet and Sapsucker. In the contents is also a good article on the slaughter of ducks by fishing on Hamilton Bay. Red and Gun is published monthly by W. J. Taylor, Limited, Woodstock, Ontario.

Hephzibah-Thornberry

A very pretty wedding was solemnized in St. George's Anglican church on Saturday, August 14, at 2:30 o'clock, when Isabel, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Thornberry was united in marriage to Mr. John Hephzibah, second son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Hephzibah of Georgetown. Rev. Canon F. E. Howett officiated. The bride entered the church with her father. She made a charming picture, gowned in white georgette, with embroidered veil of French tulle arranged from a coronet of orange blossoms. Butterfly roses, baby's breath, maiden-hair fern, lily of the valley and sweet peas composed her shower bouquet. Miss Sadie Thornberry, the bridesmaid, was dressed in mauve tulle, with white picture hat, and carried a bouquet of Columbia roses and sweet peas. Mr. Arthur T. Townson was groomsman. After the ceremony a reception was held at St. John's parish hall, 60 guests being present, including guests from Georgetown, Weston and Elton. The bride and groom left later for their honeymoon trip. Mr. and Mrs. Hephzibah will reside at 16 Glendale ave., this city. - Hamilton Herald.

Norton-James

St. George's Church was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Wednesday afternoon, August 25th, when the Rev. F. H. Wase united in the Holy bonds of matrimony, Winnifred May, third daughter of Mr. George James, Georgetown, to Donald Allen Norton fourth son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Norton of Glen Williams. The bride who was given away by her father was daintily frocked in her wedding gown of white Chantonnais satin with an overskirt of net heavily beaded in sequins and rhinestones and her pretty embroidered veil caught up by a coronet of orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of pink sweetheart roses and lily of the valley. She was attended by her sister Beane James who wore a very becoming dress of powder blue tulle and georgette, blonde hat, shoes and stockings and carried a bouquet of yellow butterfly roses, also Miss Margaret McKevigie of Hamilton who was gowned in red georgette with silver trimmings and blonde hat and wore a corsage bouquet of red sweetheart roses. The groom was attended by Mr. Percy Chapman of Toronto. Mr. Charlie Kirk presided at the organ. After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride. Later in the evening the happy couple left amid a shower of confetti and best wishes for Niagara Falls and Buffalo the bride wearing a powder blue satin dress and hat to match and blonde shoes and stockings. On their return they will reside in Georgetown.
