While the gypsy has been a familiar figure in fiction for at least, century, the novelist has usually taken for his characters the wild Romany types. But there is a modern type who has adopted himself to city life. It is this type that John Murray Gibbon, Ilean of Publicity of the C.P.R., has chosen for the leading character in his new novel, "Eyes of a Gypsy." ************

One hundred young men from the British Isles will take up their studies of Canadian farming at the Agricultural College at Olds, Alberta, soon. Seven of these prospective Canadian farmers arrived in Canada on the Canadian Pacific liner "Montcalm" recently, being brought out under the Hoadley Immigration scheme, which is being carried out in conjunction with the Empire Settlement Board.

Toronto. - Ontario cattle scored signally at the National Dairy Exposition in Detroit last week with a prize winner in each of the first four Holstein breeds. This is a better record than that of any other part of the continent. The prize winners were: Leroy Siddall and J. F. Gibbons, of Denfield, T. O. Dolson, of Brampton, and Haley and Lee, of Springford. A number of lesser prizes also went to Canadian breed-

"Anyone who has other than an inbounded faith in the future of Canada, must be either without eyes or mind," declared Sir George Mc-Laren Brown, European general manager of the Canadian Pacific pany's headquarters in Montreal recently after an extended tour of the Western Provinces. Sir George was greatly impressed with the growth of the city of Vancouver, where ho visited after an absence of 15 years.

The first annual meeting of the Canadian Boards of Trade was held at Saint John, N.B., October 18th. Over 150 representatives from the civic administrative bodies of every Canadian city gathered at the Windsor Street Station in Montreal, where they entrained and proceeded over the Canadian Pacific lines to Saint John. Matters of vital interest to civic administration were discussed at the three-day convention.

Control of the fish and game industry in the State of Ohio is being sought by a commission composed of five experts on game conserva tion. This industry is at present in the hands of the Department of Agriculture. The proposal will be placed before the government by the game and fish leagues in Ohio, the belief being that the existence of such a enanciasion would be in accordance with the growing importance of the fish and game industry in that state

New History Coming.

In reference to the new public school history which he announced in Brantford last week, Premier Fergu-son said to-day that plans for it had not, been developed yet and were still under consideration. "If I tell who is writing it you will know as much about it as I-do," said the Premier. "It will not be written for unother year yet, for we are bound by our contract to use the present book until 1928." -The new book has been announced from time to time for the
