Obituary

Mrs. Margaret Conover. After only a few days' illness, the death occurred at Oakville, on Saturday morning of Mrs. Margaret Conover, widow of Wesley Conover. The late Mrs. Conover was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Featherstone and was born 23 years ago on the Seventh Line of Halton County. For the past 15 years she had resided in Oakville, previously living in the county on the Dundas Highway. She was an active worker for the United Church, and on many occasions had been in the hospital. Predeceased by her husband 18 months ago, she is survived by a daughter, Mrs. J. H. Graham of Georgetown, and a son, Herbert Conover, of Oakville.

Isaac Newton, aged 72 years, one of the oldest active business men of Barrie, was found dead at his home on Front Street on Saturday morning, having apparently suffered a seizure late Friday night when he had been working at the store. He had been in business here 32 years, and founded the Isaac Newton Mills store which he operated at the time of his death in conjunction with his nephews Jack and James Newton, the former being the well-known former Queen's Rugby coach. Mr. Newton was a member of the Board of Education, and very active in all matters pertaining to the welfare of the schools. Mr. Newton was born in Litchfield, Ontario, and was married to Mrs. M. Newton, nee Sarnia, and sister of Mrs. W. Nickell, Sarnia, Guyville.

George Frederick Tost. After a short illness George Frederick Tost, head mechanist at the Provincial Paper Mills on the Credit, passed away at his home on Queen St. on Sunday last. Deceased was a son of the late Henry Tost and was born in Stewarttown fifty-three years ago. He has been a faithful employee at the Paper Mills for nearly 40 years and a good citizen, esteemed and respected by all who knew him. Besides his widow who was formerly Josephine Thompson of Glenwilliams, he leaves a family of five sons, Fred, Frank, Henry, Jack and Duncan. Three brothers and three sisters also survive, viz: William, Duncan, Albert and Miss Alison, Georgetown; Mrs. Robt. Neil, New Liskard; Mrs. John Bell, London.

The funeral was taken on Tuesday afternoon to Greenwood Cemetery when the service was conducted by Rev. F. P. Wase, Rector of St. George's Church of which deceased was a member. The pall-bearers were John Bingham, E. McWhirter, W. V. Grant, Angus Duncan, S. Kirk Charles Watson.

Glenwilliams

Mrs. J. Marsden's many friends are sorry to hear of her recent illness and wish her a speedy recovery. Are our boys going to organize a Hockey Team this winter? We are not waiting for the coming election it is set in the Glen already. The Brotherhood took charge of the service in the United Church on Sunday last, Mr. Blythe being the speaker. Our new factory commenced operations last Thursday and will soon be going full swing. Halloween was not celebrated in the Glen this year. Mrs. Joe Marchmont who has been ill for several weeks is improving nicely. The Ladies Aid of the United Church will hold a sale of work and home-made baking on Saturday Nov. 20th. Particulars later.

Names on Mail Boxes

Farmers would do the travelling public a service if they would see that their names are printed plainly on their mail boxes, or better still in a prominent place on or beside their road gates. If this were generally the practice it would be much easier for travellers to find the places they wished to visit either socially or for business purposes. It is not the easiest matter in the world for the wayfarer to find the farm that he wished to reach. Directions are often woefully inaccurate and even when one gets to the immediate neighborhood of a place it is sometimes necessary to walk a considerable distance to some house in order to make inquiries and obtain explicit directions. Much of this inconvenience could be avoided if the names of the owners of farms were printed either on their mail boxes or on their gateways. Apart from all this the traveller is often interested to know who lives in a place that has for some reason or other made a special appeal to his interest. Perhaps the farm is well kept, the buildings particularly attractive, or there may be something about an orchard, a lawn or a well-kept flower garden that excites interest and the passer-by naturally feels that he would like to know who lives in that particular place.

Card of Thanks

We hereby convey to friends and neighbors our very sincere thanks for their kindness and sympathy extended to us in our sad bereavement by the death of a beloved husband and father—Mrs. Fred Tost and Family, Georgetown.

A special meeting of Ashgrove Improvement League was held on Oct. 29th at the home of the leader Mrs. H. Wilson. After the transaction of business, games and speeches were enjoyed, followed by a halcyon festival celebrated by a winter roast, art cracking, corn popping and apple eating. It proved a pleasant and profitable evening.

Farewell to Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McIntosh

On Wednesday evening of last week the Presbyterian Young Peoples Guild met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Robinson to bid "Farewell" to Mr. and Mrs. McIntosh who were then leaving for their new home in Hamilton. A musical and literary program was provided, followed by games and refreshments. During the program an address was read to Mrs. McIntosh by Rev. K. MacLennan and Alex. Fraser, president of the Guild presented Mrs. McIntosh with an umbrella. The address and gift were gratefully received and Mrs. McIntosh expressed her regrets at leaving her friends in Georgetown and the work of the Guild which she so much enjoyed. The following is the address:— Dear Mrs. McIntosh:—The world constantly moves, and this movement of the world affects our lives, some for better and some for worse. That movement in the world which makes it necessary for you to leave us will, we hope, be better for you but it is surely worse for us. It is hard for us because it tells the story of industrial depression in the town, and it is worse for us because you are not to leave your companionship and your assistance as in past days. This is still in some measure a new world to you and Mr. McIntosh, and perhaps you feel that you are yet strangers and pilgrims with always a far away look across many miles of water, two land that was once home, and which refuses to be to you anything other than home. We had hoped that Georgetown would become home to you, that as long as you lived you might live here. But if you are not to live here always we have gathered here tonight to tell you that you have made our home town and our church and especially our Guild much brighter and happier and better while you did live here. You have worked hard and hard and hard to accomplish the good work in which we are all interested. We cannot forget how willingly you have accepted your share of the work and how though we all knew that many duties constantly claimed your attention at home and that often these duties were faced with very limited strength. We desire to express our sympathy with you in the disappointments of life during the time that Mr. McIntosh was laid aside from work. We trust that your new home will not be too far distant from us and that it may prove to be a very happy one to you. As a mark of our appreciation we ask you to accept this gift and trust that it may oft remind you of your many friends in the Guild of Knox Presbyterian Church, Georgetown. Alex. Fraser, President, Clarence Keith, Secretary.
