In Memoriam

DAVIS-In loving memory of Charles E. Davis who died Nov. 12th, 1925. November brings sad memories . Of a loved one laid to rest, Who will always be remembered

By those who loved him best Memories drift to scenes long past, Time rolls on but memories last, Sunshine passes, shadows fall, Love's remembrance out lasts all.

A loving father, true and kind; No friend on earth like him we'll find For all of us he did his best, And God gave him eternal rest. In our hearts your memory lingers, Sweetly tender, fond and true. There is not a day dear father That we do not think of you,

- Family Obituary

Philip Daniel Rrooke The many friends of Billie Brooke will be glad to know that when the sadden call came to him at the Ont ario Hospital to leave this world, he knew neither pain nor fear. He was taken ill with pneumonia during the trying weather conditions of last month, and in spite of kindest care and attention the disease spread rapidly to both lungs, affecting the heart and causing a sudden collapse early Thursday morning, November 4th. Philip Daniel Brooke familiary known as (Billie,) was born in Georgetown, August 28th, 1909 where he spent most of his life. H friends will recall his passionate love of music, and his great desire to be a good Boy Scout. The funeral service on Saturday, Nov. 6th, at the residence of his father, Mr. F. W. Brooke, Georgetown, was conducted by Rev. Kenneth McLean of Knox Church, assisted by members of the choir who led in the singing of Billie's favorite hymn, "Bhall we S. Standish; junior, 1 I. Bessey 2 K. gather at the River," and Miss Jean Keddie of Oshawa, sister of Mrs. Brooks, added to the consolation of the service by her singing of "The Sweet Story of Old" the words of which were also dear to Billie. The Boy Scouts gathered reverently about Squires. the casket during the service, acted as pall bearers and went in a body to Greenwood Cemetery, where Billie chimes played "Abide with me." Billie's brothers, Dr. R. J. Brooke, Harry Grover Brooke, Frank Brooke, of Toronto: aud F. W. Brooke ir. of Chicago, also Mr. T. L. Robinette of Toronto were present at the funeral
