family history of Mr. and Mrs. James McIntosh occurred at "The Maples," their residence, on Frederick Street, Acton, on Monday evening, Dec. 6th. This was the occasion of the fiftieth anniversary of the marriage of James McIntosh, of Esquesing, to Mary Jane Graham, of Erin, which occurred on the for a double funeral from the United Church, Acton, their church home for many years, on Wednesday afternoon, afternoon and announced that the shooting was accidental, and that an inquest was unnecessary. The little boy, eyes reddened with crying, sobbed that he had "only been playing," while Thomas Comber, husband of the dead woman, who brought the gun into the house, stated that he had not known it was loaded.

Comber, an employee of one of the mills here, had planned to go rabbit shooting on Saturday afternoon. On his way from work, he borrowed the rifle from a friend and proceeded home to luncheon.

Rev. Mr. McGregor, the pastor, officianted about twenty-five years ago. They lived in their comfortable home on Willow Street for many years. Previously they had lived at Glenwilliams and Cheltenham. For a number of years they conducted a grocery store their portion.
