Stock Judging, Contest

Good work was performed by the young farmers from the counties of Hastings, Prince Edward, Northumberland. Peterboro, Victoria, Dur ham, Ontario, York. Halton and Reel, who entered the three-day awine judging competition which was held at the Union Stock Yards, Torontd, last week. The boys judged one class of hogs alive and later the same animals dressed and also tested their ability by grading a bunch of hogs in the regular stock yard run While there was no prize for the high man, it is worth noting that James Pinkey, Cooksville, who head. od the live hog judging, also stood up well with the others, but under the rules he was only allowed one prize. Moris Readhead, Milton. placed 24 hogs out of 25 in their proper grades. The awards were as follows:-- -Grading live hogs _1. Morris Readhead, Milton; 2, John Cruickshanks. Frankford: 3, Harold Collins, Keene Live hogat 1, James Pinkey, Cooksville, 2, John Pawley, Brampton; 3, Art McCaugherty, Streets

ST. GEORGE'S CHURCH

Orewded Congregation at Confirmation Service. 17 Candidates receive "Laying on of Hands" by Right Rev. Derwyn T. Owen, Bishep of Mingara

A congregation which taxed the scating capacity of the Church to the uttermost, assembled in St. Georges Church last Sunday evening, to wit ness the solemn and beautiful Service of Confirmation at the hands of his lordship, the Bishop of Niagara.

Seventeen candidates (5 boys and 12 girls) were presented to the Bishop by the Rector of the Parish, and after the reading of the Holy Scripture (where the apostle custom of the "Laying on of hands" is recorded in the acts of the apostles, and the Epistle to the Hebrews), the Bishop preached a very eloquent sermon on the text. "This is the day which the Lord liath made, we will rejoice and be glad in it." His lordship pointed out that this day, the day of confirmation, was the day to which the boys and girls had been looking forward to for years; thirtley they were coming forward before God and the congregation to take upon them selves the yows and promises made by them or for them in their laptism. Those yows which though quite simple and easily understood by every one, really covered the whole of the Christian life, viz: - (1) To renounce what is evil. (2) To believe what is true (3) To do what is right. The Bishop then went on to say that this day was also a day for every one present to make a new start in The death of Mrs. W. T. Hall oc- life.
