Over 500 Children Received Treat from Santa Claus Christmas Eve

Christmas eve was a big night fo the Children in Georgetown when the annual Community Christmas tree ceremonies were held. The weather was favorable and when old Santa arrived at 7.30 in his sleigh drawn by Boy Scouts, a very large gathering awaited him. He received a warm welcome from the hundreds of children present. Over 600 children received a treat from Santa,

Selections by our town hand, an community singing led by Mr. A, B Castell were other features of th evening enjoyed by all. After Santa Claus completed labors at the tree his visited the A menian Farm and several homes in the community where his cheery greetings and Christmas gifts were heartily welcomed .-- .--

The fine tree for the occasion wa donated by Mr. John Miller of 7th line; it was brought to town Mr. J. B. Mackenzie and erected by the business men and Boy Scouts The splendid electrical illumination was arranged by Electrician Benj. Forster. The part of Santa Claus was as usual well taken by Mr. C. D.

Obituary

mon by the rector.

William J. Fleming On December 3, William Johnston Fieming of Chicago passed away very suddenly at his winter residence, Winterhaven, Florida. Born in Esquesing, Halton County, Ontario, 65 years ago, he was the youngest of the six sons of the late Robert and Elizabeth Fleming. Reared on a farm in Mono Township, to which the family had removed when he was about 12 years old, William left home at an early age to enter a drug store, and it was as a chemist he achieved success. After years of research and experiment, the rapid extension of his business soon necessitated larger and more central ly chosen as the centre for a firm doing business in two hemispheres. Possessed of a pleasing personality and upright character, Mr. Fleming endeared himself to all who knew him. He is survived by his wife, formerly Miss Bernice Needham, and one sister, Mrs. John Appelbe, of Georgetown, Ontario, who is the eld-spectorship and dwelt at some length and the various systems of road work. est of the family.

County Council day. At the close Warden Blain was people, who knew what they wanted, given a bearty vote of thanks for the to construct their roads.

Township Clerk Brown referred to ed at the meetings of the council the finances generally; all former during the year and had managed its mortgage monies were now invested business. All the members of the in Government bonds; a new vault council spoke in approval.

Election in Township Appelbe and Leslie for Reeve Carton and Gowdy for Beput-Reeve

There will be an election in Esq. ne sing Township on Monday, next, January 3rd, for the offices of Reeve and Deputy Reeve. The following members of Council were elected by acclamation - George C. Cleave, James L. Standish, and George Nomination took place in the Conneil Chamber at Stewarttown on Monday last, when a good attendance of ratepayers were present. When the hour for receiving nom

James L. Standish by J. Ruddel and James McDowell. Wm. Gowdy by Alex Joe and W. I. McCullough. Walter Lawson by Jno. Stoddard

and Geo. L. Leslie. At the close of nominations Col. Enjoyed by Children G. O. Brown, township clerk, on motion of Reeve Appelbe and Dep-Reeve Loslie was elected chairman of the after meeting, and called on the following to address the electors

Reeve Appelbe thanked all for the honor of representing the town ship as Reeve during the past two years. He had done his best and if the ratepayers and members of Coupcil were satisfied he would remain in office another year. The business of the year had been very satisfactory and the appeal against the equalization had saved the Townspip of Esq. uesing about $13000. The finances of the township were in good shape and when all the taxes were collected there would be a surplus of about $3000. Road work had been greatly hampered this year by so much rain and lack of help. He referred to County Council matters in general and the Trafalgar controversy and roads in particular. In the township they had cleaned up their financial obligations and balance of monies is now invested in bonds. The Council as a whole had done their best and i the ratepayers were satisfied he would year without an election. Deputy-Reeve Leslie thanked the rate-payers for past honors and if the people were satisfied he was willing to remain another year as Deputy Reeve as he had only been one year in that office. He referred to the work at County Council and thought that the township would be better to take care of its county roads and educational matters. Some road had been built in the portion of the township he represented but the wet sea-Rev. Dr. Dickie's subjects for the son was bad for road-work.
