HEREDITY

I'm no biologist; I can't Explain the structure of a plant. or talk in strange and curious terms Of protoplasms and of germs, But this is plain as plain can be That boy of mine is much like me. When on the chair he flings his hat I'm sure no atranger taught him tlut, Those dressing tucties, oh, so slow,

Which irritate his mother so. Were not acquired; but yesterday I hand to dawdle just that way. I see him living o'er and o'er
So much that I was scolded for.
That maddening indifference to
The little things he ought to do
Should be corrected, but I know
I did as he does, long ago.

That love of laughter and of mirth Came with him on his day of birth. In many a fault and many a whim And it's unfair to scold a lad
