Some souls wounds kill:
'They never head just bleed and bleed;
They only feel the unkind deed,
And never know the kindler will:
Such souls wounds kill. And some, wounds mar:
The soured soul will ne or forget
And grow quite whole; the ancient fret
Clings like a painful, blinding sear:
Such souls wounds mar.

Some souls wounds bless: A fragrant fount of patience springs, My which they mount to higher things, And life grows trultful in duross: Heroic souls wounds bless.
