Donald B. McMillan, noted Arctic Explorer, gave his first Canadian lecture on the North Pole and regions adjoining, at Montreal recently. Mr. McMillan showed some remarkable slides of brillant Arctic flowers which grow during the brief Polar summer. He also exploded the common belief that Eskimo women are not beautiful, showing pictures of some that might have posed for the movies.

Quick work on the part of the C.P.R. investigation department and the honesty of a Red Cap recovered an American $500 bill for its loser. B. S. Nauer, public accountant of New York, recently. Mr. Nauer pulled it out of his pocket in getting some small change and it fell to the floor of the concourse of the Montreal C.P.R. station. The Red Cap picked it up and handed it to the station master. When Mr. Nauer made enquiries, a few minutes later, it was handed to him. He gave the Red Cap the kandsome tip of $100.
