The beautifully decorated tables were laden with a delicious late Thomas Ramshaw, in her 82nd manu which the ladies served and moted by leaders of boys' work was menu which the ladies served and the fathers and sons enjoyed.

Mr. Earl Lautenslager, Premier of the Older Boys Parliament was the chief speaker of the evening, and was introduced by Mr. Jack A. McDermid, Halton's representative in the Boys

The Premier gave a splendid address and dealt in an interesting and pleasing way with the attitude Dad should have to the Lad, and also the duty of the Lad to his Dad. He emphasized the main advantages scorning from the work being accomplished by the boys movement, which tended to a better citizenship and a desire for world wide peace. Recent y an ex-Premier had attended a world's congress of boys at which lalegates from every country in the world had been in attendance, and his experience, after mingling with these boys was the evident desire on the part of all of them to foster peace rather than war.

A very hearty vote of thanks was ! our tendored the speaker by Mr. J. D. Godfrey for his splendid address. Other speakers were Rev. Dr. Dickie, Arthur Tyndall, John Mc-Dermid, Victor Norrington and Mrs. Wm. Tyndall.

A vocal selection by Mr. Everet Cole, cornet solo by Mr. Charlie Wilson and the numerous selections by the splendid Sunday Behool Orchestra under the able leadership of Mr. H. G. Moir were all much enjoyed, as was also the sing song. During the evening medals won in the Bond Selling Contest were presented by Mr. Jack McDermid to the following boys:-Fraser Mimms, silver medal for selling most bonds; John Lane, Jack Maclaren, Arthur Dayfoot, Allan McDonald, John Abel, George Dickie, Jim Evans and By the death of Simon Prout on Mihran Jeknesorian, bronze medals.
