Lawson-McLellan

The marriage of Miss Lella Katherine McLellan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McLellan, 87 Annetta St. Toronto, to Mr. William Fisher Lawson of Toronto, son of Mrs. Mary Lawson and the late Walter Lawson of Stewartstown took place Saturday, February 26th at St. John's Anglican Church, Homerside Ave., the pastor Rev. R. Macmanan officiating. The wedding music was played by Mr. Percy McDonald. The bride who was given away by her father wore a pretty gown of shell pink georgette with light bodice and petal skirt with pale blue velvet ribbon trimmings and hat of the same shades. Her slippers were of pink satin and she carried a bouquet of butterfly roses and lily of the valley and wore the wedding ring, a gift of a white fox fur. During the signing of the register Miss Daisy MacNeill of Toronto sang very sweetly. "Until." After the ceremony a dinner was served for the immediate friends at the hotel Cana Rita, the tables being prettily decorated with spring flowers and tall pink candles in silver holders. A toast to the bride was proposed by the groom's brother, Mr. Walter Lawson and responded to by the groom. The bride and groom left for Montreal, the bride travelling in a green crepe dress with small green hat and black seal coat with gray squirrel trimming. On their return they will reside at 455 Annetta St. Toronto.

Hornby

Miss J. M. Stewart passed away on Tuesday of last week, at the home of her sister, Mrs. Rayner, Trafalgar. She was a daughter of the late Mr. Stewart, minister of the Hornby Presbyterian Church and was born at the Hornby on Sept. 17th, 1862. Her loss is mourned by two sisters Mrs. Charles Rowell, Kansas City, Mo., U. S., and Mrs. Rayner, and two brothers, Tom, Toronto, and Willie, Pelee Island, Ont. The funeral took place at Toronto. A short service, conducted by Rev. P. W. MacInnes, was held at the home.

A very delightful evening was spent at the home of Foster Brain on Monday night, when a large crowd of members and friends and parishioners of Norval and district gathered together to welcome the newly appointed pastor, Rev. Mr. Boyd, into the community. After a little speech Mr. Boyd ran off of local numbers by Messrs. Brain, Brown and others. Mr. Greenwood, of Norval charmed the large audience with his readings. Rev. P. W. MacInnes, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, gave an address on the two words, "Keep True." Ist, to the church; 2nd, to the minister; 3rd, to the Master and community. He also passed on the greetings of the Presbyterian Church here. A splendid lunch was served by the ladies, after which everybody went home happy and delighted.—Champion.
