In Memoriam

BLEIGHTHOLME—In loving memory of a dear husband and father, Arthur Bleightholme who passed away April 9th, 1925.

Some time, some day our eyes shall see
That face we loved so well;
Some time our hand shall clasp in his
And never say farewell.
Wife and daughter.

HALPIN—In loving memory of Pte. Wilbert Halpin, killed in action in France April 17, 1918.

Oft we think of you dear Wilbert,
And our hearts are sad with pain;
O this earth would be a heaven,
Could we hear your voice again.
Only those who loved and lost,
Know the great war's bitter cost;
His life was good, his death was brave,
May God keep watch over his silent grave.
—Sadly remembered by Father, Mother, Sisters and Brother.

LAFFERTY—In remembrance of our only son and brother, Gunner Alex Lafferty, who died in Christie St. Military Hospital, April 16th 1925—Family.

Veteran Publisher Dies at Cornwall

C. W. Young, proprietor of The Cornwall Freeholder, died at his home in Cornwall last Thursday after a long illness. Mr. Young was one of the most widely known newspaper men in Canada. An extensive traveller, he was a frequent contributor to magazines, particularly on Anglican matters.

Deceased was born in Georgetown, a son of the late James Young. He first engaged in his life calling on The Hamilton Spectator. Later he spent some time in the United States at New Orlean and Jackson, Missouri. He came to Cornwall in 1885 from Stratford, where he had been on the staff of The Beacon, and had since made his home here. In 1893 he represented the Ontario Government at the Chicago World's Fair. He was a Past President of the Canadian Press Association. In fraternal affairs he belonged to the I.O.O.F. in Stratford, the Masons, Sons of Scotland and Canadian Foresters in Cornwall, and was also a member of the Cornwall Club. When curling was a vogue in Cornwall Mr. Young was a devotee of that game. He was also a Past President and Secretary of the old Cornwall Lacrosse Club, and at the time of his death was Vice-President of the Cornwall Horticultural Society.

He is survived by his widow, who was Miss Carrie Carehew, daughter of the late Edward Carehew, Collector of Customs at Guelph, and a son and daughter, Miss Blanche Young and W. R. Young, of The Freeholder.

Terra Cotta

Mr. J. Eason has sold his farm on the 5th line to Mr. Ben Young.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Searles of the 5th line were the recipients of a presentation by friends and neighbors on Friday evening last.

Mr. Harry Elwood, who has been employed with the Halton Brick Co. for a number of years intends moving to Toronto shortly.

Miss Bilton of Toronto is spending a few days with her parents here.

Mr. W. J. Rutledge and family are confined to their home with the grippe.

Mr. Charles Simpkins arrived home from Guelph Hospital last week.

Miss Wilma Hunter, Mr. Jack Puckering of Terra Cotta and Mrs. W. L. Stringer of Toronto took part in the program at the U.F.O. Banquet held at Acton recently. Terra Cotta and Brampton Orchestra provided music for the dance.

Mr. R. J. Stringer has returned home from Milton where he spent some days with his cousins Mr. and Mrs. M. Stringer. While there he visited the old Indian burying ground where skeletons and other relics of the early days have been ploughed up. He brought some Indian relics home with him as souvenirs.

Halton vs. Trafalgar Settlement

The following correspondence by a "Ratepayer" in the Milton Champion of last week may be interesting to our readers who take an interest in municipal affairs:—"I would like to voices a protest against proposed settlement re Trafalgar vs. County of Halton, good roads dispute re payment of Trafalgar's share of debentures:

1st—If agreement arranged by committee and the Judge of the last court went into effect it might work out a very great injustice to the rest of the county, as no doubt the representatives of Trafalgar gave a very solemn pledge to reimburse the county in full without any cost to the county whatsoever for the privilege of floating the debentures by the county council; and it does not appear fair because Trafalgar has found out through an error or technicalities the county is to assume their own honest liabilities.

2nd—Let us see how it works out. If Trafalgar only pays first two instalments the county as a whole will have to assume nearly $58,000, which justly belongs to Trafalgar and will become a burden on the county for the next eighteen years, or over $5500 per year.

3rd—Then again, if the 2nd line is taken over by the provincial government, which no doubt it will be, the actual cost of same, and Trafalgar township will have one concession less to keep up, notwithstanding that two roads have already been taken over of said township's, namely, the Toronto-Hamilton Highway and Dundas St., so that the township's mileage will be much less to keep up according to the assessment than that of any of the other townships.

4th—But, alas, there seems to be a remedy left open yet, as I understand the agreement has to go before the municipal councils for ratification, then to county council, then to the Lieut.-Governor for sanction.

5th—Would it not be proper for all the municipalities to turn down the proposition and force it to a head, as I believe we can get justice in the courts? If there are any doubts as to the rest of the by-laws why not go to the Legislature and have them validated and give the rest of the county a square deal? Now, Mr. Editor, I hope some or all the ratepayers will give vent to their indignation for such a settlement and that justice still may reign in our fair county."
