Soft-ball

The soft-ball games being played at the Arena each Tuesday and Thursday evenings are rapidly gaining in popularity judging by the increased attendance at the last number of games. The teams are nearing the end of the schedule and the final games will be well worth seeing.

On Thursday evening last Limehouse defeated Smith & Stone in the first game. The second game between Norval and the Glen was a hard fought struggle, the teams being a tie at the end of the game. In the extra innings played to break the tie the Glen were successful in pulling out a win.

On Friday evening the K. C. K. defeated Acton in the first game by a good margin. In the second game the Georgetown ladies easily defeated the Acton ladies.

On Saturday night one of the best games ever witnessed at the Arena was played between Glen and Norval, which resulted in a win for the latter. The game was a real snappy one from start to finish.

On Tuesday evening the K.C.K.C. defeated Smith & Stone in the first game and Limehouse won from the Pipers in the second.

Tomorrow (Thursday) night Smith & Stone meet the Glen in the first game and Norval play the K.C.K.C. in the second.

On Tuesday evening next Limehouse play the Glen in the first game and Norval and Smith & Stone the second.
