Kirkwood-McPherson On Dec. 3rd a quiet wedding took place at the Paragon, Ballinacraig, when Elizabeth, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McPherson, town line, Erin, became the bride of Mr. Wm. MacKay Kirkwood, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kirkwood, tenth line, Erin. Rev. Millard Gandler officiating. The bride was attended in a suit of navy blue point with hat, scarf and gloves to match. She wore the groom's gift, a white gold wrist watch. Mrs. Jax Kirkwood of Ballinacraig was bridesmaid while the groom was supported by his brother James. Immediately after the ceremony the happy couple left for a short trip to Guilph, returning to the bride's home on Tuesday evening. The bride donned a dress in the United Church last Sunday morning. Many old friends of former days were pleased to hear the venerable preacher again. During his visit in town he was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. I. Creelman.

Here and There

Work on the section of the Mount Main Pulp and Paper Company's plant at Point St. Hubert has been completed. The plant will be put into operation on Monday.

The value of the Western Canadian grain crop for the year is estimated at $100,000,000. The crop is estimated to be 1,000,000,000 bushels.

The Eastern International Dog Sled Derby will be held this year at Quebec City, February 20, 21 and 22 according to information given out by the tourist department of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company.

Montana farmers are hauling grain to stations on the Canadian Pacific Railway line just north of the International boundary line in Southwestern Saskatchewan. Some 50,000 bushels are on the move there on sale to the Wheat Pool. It is estimated that the Montana farmers are paying the duty and receiving about $5 per load more than if they shipped the grain to a station along the Ontario route.

The tourist crop is the next best crop to that of wheat in the Canadian West," said C. B. Foster, passenger traffic manager of the Canadian Pacific Railway, visiting Winnipeg recently. "Canadians are now capitalizing on the splendid winters."

"It used to be our custom to decay them, but we have since learned their appeal to the stranger as well as ourselves and are profiting by it."

Quebec City is preparing for a record winter sports season, according to Jack Strathdee, newly appointed winter sports director at Chateau Frontenac. Mr. Strathdee comes to his new field of activity with a wealth of experience, having promoted outdoor sports in the Muskoka Lakes region and more recently at the French River. Bungalow Camps of the Canadian Pacific Railway.

Saskatchewan heads the provinces of Canada in growth of revenue from the tourist trade, according to the Dominion Bureau of Statistics, dealing with the calendar year 1926. The gain over the previous year was over 100 per cent, while Manitoba was the only other province with a revenue increase of more than 25 per cent. The tourist business for the whole of Canada has risen from $100,000,000 in 1925 to $105,000,000 last year. It is thought to contribute $100,000,000 to Canada's favorable balance of trade.

Of Canada's four great sources of wealth - the forest, the mine and the stream - the forest has steadily pushed forward until it now holds second place, particularly in the reports from the Dominion. For the 12 months ended September 30th last, grain and forest products exported were valued at $241,000,000; metals $160,000,000 and newspaper $120,000,000. The forest products added $100,000,000 to the total wealth of the forests, manufactured and unmanufactured wood valued at $162,500,000, making the forest aggregate a $280,000,000.
