tions, Friday.
The postmaster reports business back the past few days.
Only three more days to do your Christmas shopping.
Our advertisers all tell us they are doing a good Christmas trade.
Some local items that arrived too late for this issue will appear next week.
Requesting Township nominations, next Friday, Dec. 23rd, at Stewarttown.

day, Dec. 30th. Watch for particular advertisement.
Big time—Town Hall, Tuesday night, Dec. 27th. Evaluation: Army Christmas Entertainment.
The Arena was open Tuesday night for the first time this season, to the delight of our local skaters.
See the "Frigidale" at Mc-Clure's Home Furnishing store. No more need to worry about the ice man.
Choice tobaccos, cigars, cigarettes and pipes for Christmas at Hughes and McDonald's, Mill st., Georgetown.
Chief Jackson has asked us to request merchants to see that their premises are securely locked at night and all monies removed from the tills.
The work of cutting down the hill and widening the road around the pond at Stewarttown has been finished. It's a good road for the shape it's in.
The Herald has received handsome 1928 calendars this week from J. N. O'Neill, H. Mackenzie, W. T.
Evans, Elmer C. Thompson and B.
Livingston.

Christmas cheer. Please leave contributions at Livingston's Bakery by Friday noon.
Santa Claus was in town last Saturday afternoon for an hour or two and received a hearty welcome from the children. He is coming back for the Community Christmas tree on Saturday night.
Christmas specials—Cigars, pipes, tobaccos and smokers supplies at reduced prices. Get a nice box of cigars or tobacco for your smoker friend. All kinds at Hughie and McDonald's, Mill st., Georgetown.
The firemen's hall and supper on Friday evening, Dec. 30th, is the next big event in town. Tell your friends about it and be sure and be there yourself if you want to enjoy an evening of good music and dancing.
The sales office of the Georgetown Coated Paper Mills, in Tor-
