

Some people still use bulk tea—They think it cheaper—it isn't—for they are paying for dust and siftings and for waning flavour—They have not discovered "SALADA"—dust-free, fresh, full-flavoured—sealed in metal.

The winner from each district has the privilege of competing in the final competition to be held in Toronto on April 12th. This district takes in the counties of Huron, Bruce, Grey, Perth, Dufferin, Waterloo, Wellington and Halton. At the contest held in Massey Hall, O.A.C. Guelph on Wednesday last (Jan. 26th), Mary Spence carried off the honors and is now eligible to compete in the final for the Provincial Championship. The subject of her speech was "Staying on the Farm." D. A. ### Business Summary

Following is a brief summary of information received by the Bank of Montreal, under date of Jan. 23rd, concerning business conditions in Ontario:—
"The volume of wholesale trade continues somewhat in advance of the corresponding period last year. Retail merchants report encouraging demand for all seasonal lines; sales of Christmas goods were well in advance of last year. Collections are fair. Automobile manufacturers are resuming volume production. Agricultural implement manufacturers have closed a successful year. Tire factories, tanners and manufacturers of electrical equipment are actively engaged. Furniture manufacturers, now holding their Annual Exhibition, are optimistic regarding the outlook. Conditions in the milling industry remain unchanged with little export enquiry, but a good domestic demand. Woolen textile mills continue to find trade disappointing. Paper mills larger output than last year in ties and mining timber is looked for, but pulpwood cordage will be somewhat smaller. The weather has been mild and in some sections fields are bare. To date Fall wheat has wintered well."

Getting Busy Early

A Georgetown bachelor claims to have received the following leap year letter several days ago: "My dear and most respected sir, I send you this your love to stir. You have I chosen first of all on whom to make my maiden call. Your heart and hand I ask, no less, and hope you'll grant my fond request. Now, if your heart does not incline in wedlock bonds with mine to join, then you must down five thousand pay; besides, dear sir, a handsome dress. I ask no more and think no less. Now you may think this letter funny, but I must have a man or money. So now, dear sir, send your reply. Let me be yours until I die."

A farmer became the father of twins, and on learning the news he was so delighted he hurried to the nearest post office, and sent this telegram to his sister-in-law: "Twins to day. More to-morrow."

Obituary

Mrs. (Rev.) Austin Potter Susan Condon Garratt, widow of Rev. Austin Potter, passed away at the Hamilton City Hospital about noon on Sunday after having been critically ill for the past six weeks. She was born up a farm on the shores of Lake Ontario near Wellington, Prince Edward County, and was a daughter of the late Freeman R. Garratt and Sarah M. Conger, both parents being descendants of early J. E. Loyall settlers in that county. She was married in 1875 to the late Rev. Austin Potter, who was at that time stationed at Wellington, who later filled charges in the Methodist Churches at Queenville, Dundalk, Hanover, Tawatawa, Godolphin, Dunganun, Clifford, Hagersville, Paisley Georgetown and Southville. She was always a great assistance to her husband in the work of the church, her bright, generous and friendly spirit making her much beloved by the congregations. After superannuation they settled in Dundas in 1910. Since Mr. Potter's death in January, 1913, she has made her home with her daughters, spending the summers in Dundas with Mrs. C. H. Moore and the winters in Welsborough, Missouri, with Mrs. E. W. Mahood. She is also survived by a daughter-in-law, Mrs. A. J. Potter, of Detroit, Mich., and six grandchildren. Her only son and the youngest daughter predeceased her.

The funeral took place Tuesday afternoon from the residence of her daughter, Mrs. C. H. Moore, Dundas, to Grove Cemetery. Rev. Dr. J. C. Sizer officiated assisted by Rev. F. Moore and Dr. M. P. Binkley who represented the Binkley Union Church on the Hamilton Road, where Mr. Potter preached for a time after moving to Dundas.—Dundas Star.

He was born in Ireland, coming to Canada with his mother in the year 1847, he being just a child. Three days after their arrival his mother died leaving him an orphan in a new country. He was almost a life long resident of Terras Cotta, going to Guelph a few years ago to join his daughter in his advanced years. In the year 1867 he married Frances Galbraith of Terras Cotta. They were married in Georgetown and celebrated their golden wedding in Terras Cotta in the year 1916. In 1925 they celebrated their diamond wedding in Guelph. He was a member of the United Church and in politics he was a life-long conservative.

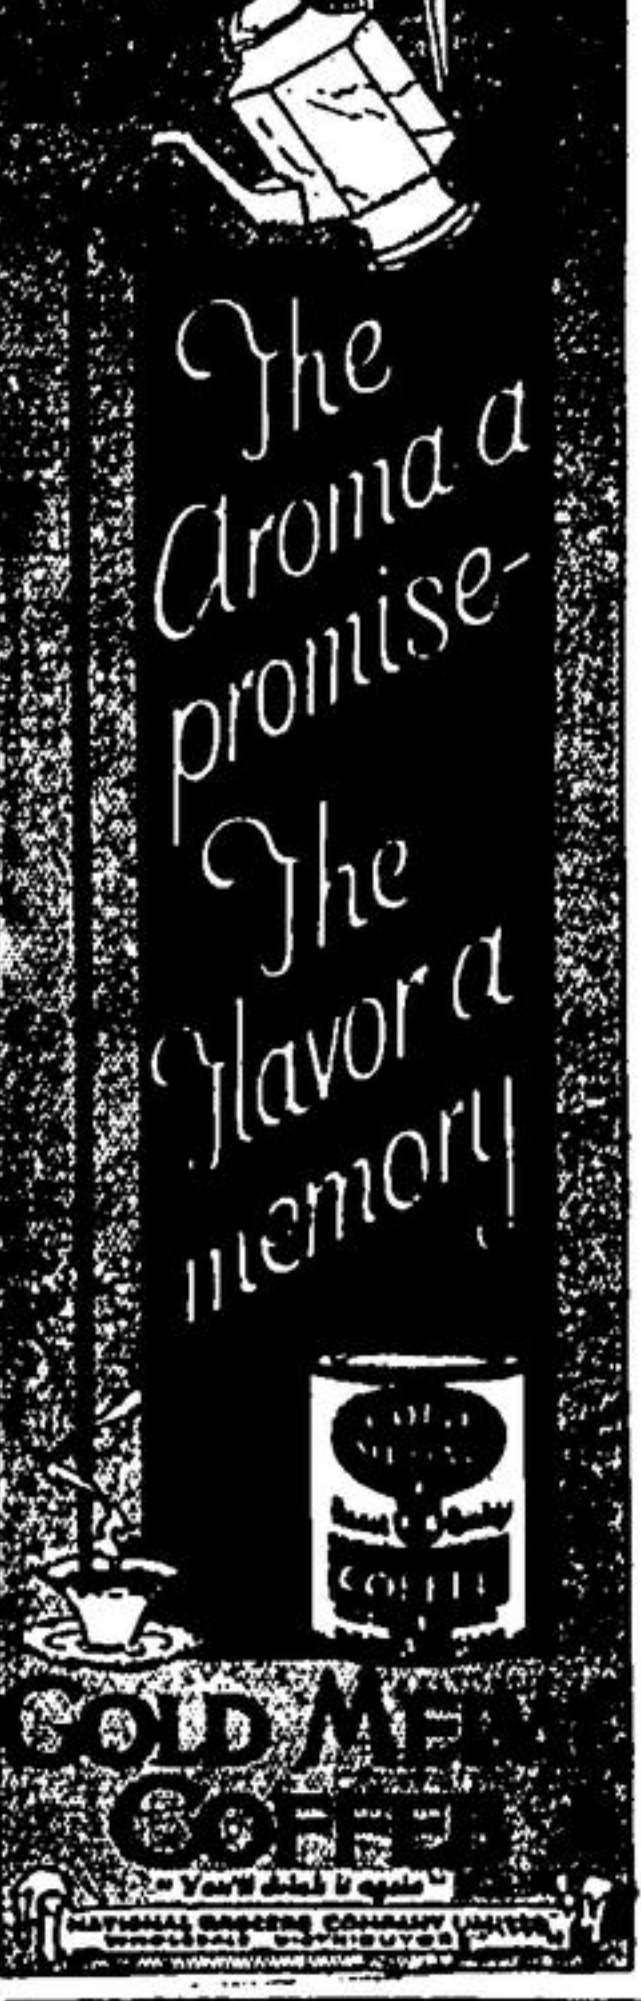

The funeral took place on Tuesday afternoon from his late residence in Guelph to the cemetery at Glenwilliams. After a short service at the home a service was held in Glenwilliams United Church. Both services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Stewart, assisted by Rev. Mr. Caldwell at Glenwilliams church. The pall bearers were his six grandsons Albert B. Parr, John Parr, Carroll Lillioce, Kenneth, James and Norman Davidson.

Many beautiful floral designs covered the casket showing the great respect in which he was held by his many friends.

Miss Campbell was the youngest daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Campbell of Georgetown. She received her education at the High School. She had resided in Toronto since the death of her parents, and during that time had made many friends, being of a winsome and bright disposition, the ready wit, the affection and confidence of all she came in contact with. Her loss is deeply regretted in social circles as well as in other walks of life. For the past twenty years she held a position in the Parliament buildings. She is deeply mourned by her sister Miss Martha of Toronto, Mrs. L. C. If you have a thing to sell

If its merits will compel,

People do not often buy,
Things they cannot see or try
Tell'em, or they'll pass it by
Let the people know it.

If you have a crop to raise,
First you have to sow it.
If you want your trade to grow,
Grab your horn and blow it!
Buyers don't have second sight,
The unknown never wins them—quite
But you can rouse an appetite,
If you let them know it.

No matter how you may despair it,
If your goods have any merit
Men will buy if you declare it,
