Lumbermen Met

Stage Greaf Annual Cathering a London-President J. B. MacKenzie Presided

The Canadian Lumberman says: --Most successful; well attended and outhusiastic was the eleventh autocal convention of the Ontario Retai Lumber Dealer's Association which took place in the beautiful Hotel, Landon, recently. On all sides, it was voted to be the most satisfactory and profitable gathering of the trade ever held in the history of the Assurintion. The forest products exponents in the Forest City extended a glad welcome to the visitors and looked after their comfort and welfare from the first day until the last delegate had departed for home.

The lusiness and social features of the gathering were all that could be desired and from start to finish, there was something doing every minute. The Association has enjoyed a splendid year, the reports on business conditions were on the whole encouraging while the prospects for the coming engon were regard an promising There was no pessimistic atmosphere in or around the convention room and many vital, outstanding topics were discussed by healing members of the industry.

President Mackenzie, in his open ing remarks reviewed the activities of the O.R.L D.A. during the past year and gave an admirable summary of what had been accomplished. He took an optimistic view regarding trade conditions during the coming Norton when he passed away from year and said that he believed retailers could join in the feeling of stability that all is well with the general outlook in the hanner province of Ontario and that goodly turnover Shoe Co., Brampton. Of late years could be expected during the coming building season. He emphasized the in the north. He is survived by his necessity of getting a fair profit on each transaction and rendering ade quate service in every detail.

The discussion on the topics pre sented was snappy and spirited There was a pleasant informality and politics.
