Mission to Lepers
The annual meeting of the Georgetown Auxiliary to the Mission to Lepers was held in the Presbyterian Sunday School Room on Friday last. Mrs. F. Brooke was in the chair. After the opening hymn - "Jesus shall reign" Mrs. Brown led in prayer. Mrs. A. Watson read the scripture lesson. Mrs. Marchmont and Mrs. Schenk sang a duet which was much enjoyed. Mrs. Fitch also sang a pair of complete hymns in the organ and really nice solos. The hymns are now expected to herald the tiny tender freely and to give out only the large needles, so that ultimately the minute piece may be withdrawn from circulation and the big ones remain as currency.

The officers elected for 1928 are: President - Mrs. C. MacLean. Vice President - Mrs. A. Watson. Secretary - Mrs. Emily. Treasurer - Mrs. C. R. Dayfoot.

THOSE tiny, elusive little coins with the purchasing power of five cents are being recalled by the department of finance in order to give complete reign to the larger and really nice needles. The banks are now expected to herald the tiny tender freely and to give out only the large needles, so that ultimately the minute piece may be withdrawn from circulation and the big ones remain as currency.
