June Weddings

Nicholson—Harrop A pretty spring wedding took place Saturday, June 2nd at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Harrop, Pine Grove Farm, Norval, when their daughter Iva, became the wife of Russell, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Nicholson, Stratton. The ceremony was conducted by Rev. F. Wase, Georgetown. The bride was given away by her father, and wore rose blue georgette and lace, bridal veil and comb of blossoms, carrying a bouquet of Sweetheart roses and lily of the valley. Miss Lala Nicholson, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid, and wore sunni georgette and carried a bouquet of yellow roses. Mr. Russell Harrop, brother of the groom, was best man, and Mr. Ernest Harrop, another brother of Cleveland, sang "Love Came Calling" during the signing of the register. Miss Hazel Bryan, Hillsburg, played the wedding music for the occasion and reception for the happy couple, left on a honeymoon for Eastern points, the bride travelling in a green printed georgette dress with hat to match, black satin coat and shoes. The gifts of the room, Mr. and Mrs. Nicholson will reside near Snelgrove. Campbell—McMeekin The marriage of Annie May, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John McMeekin, Fairview Farm, Chinguacousy, to J. Gordon Campbell, son of Mr. Donald Campbell and the late Mrs. Campbell, Cheltenham, took place at the home of the bride's parents on June 2nd. Rev. N. D. McKinnon, pastor of Norval United Church conducted the ceremony. The bride looked charming in white georgette trimmed with rhinestones, her bridal veil being caught with orange nasturtium and her bouquet being Ophelia roses. Miss Mary McMeekin, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid and wore pink rayon, carrying a bouquet of roses. Mr. Allan McQuarrie was best man. In a room decorated in pink and white the wedding dejeuner was served, the guests numbering to seventy. The happy couple left for a wedding tour down the St. Lawrence and to New York State, the bride wearing beige dress and hat and shoes to match and a blue coat. Mr. and Mrs. Campbell will reside near Cheltenham. Jennings—Dick One of the prettiest and most colorful weddings ever witnessed in Milton took place in Grace Church on Saturday afternoon when Margaret Elizabeth "Peggy" Dick, H.A., eldest daughter of Crown Attorney William Jennings, was married to Rev. W. Bruce Jennings, B.A., second son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Jennings of Penetanguishene. Rev. Dean F. G. Kingston of Trinity College performed the ceremony, and Rev. W. Bruce Jennings was officiating at the church. The bride was given away by her father, and looked lovely in her simple gown of ivory satin made with plain bodice and long light-fitting sleeves. The full length train was carried by the bridesmaid, the back being cut into a graceful train which was lined with green georgette. Her veil was of tulle made in mob cap effect over a point lace cap worn by the bride. A white hat and long white slippers completed a very charming ensemble. Her bouquet was of calla lilies. The bride was attended by her sister, Edna, and the bridesmaid, the bridegroom's sister, Muriel, as bridesmaid. Master Jim and Miss Billie Dick, twin brother and sister of the bride, acted as train-bearer and flower girl. The best man was Mr. Fred Dick, cousin of the groom. The ushers were William Robertson, cousin of the groom; Mr. Lloyd Francis and Mr. Kenneth Dick, brother of the bride. After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dick, where the bride's parents, about one hundred and forty guests were present, among whom were Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Young of Georgetown, grandparents of the bride, also many of the close friends of the bride and groom, both of whom were graduates of Trinity College. Later the bride and groom, left by motor for Kennebec Island in the Georgian Bay, the summer home of the groom's parents, where they will reside. The bride wore a green georgette dress with beige hat and coat, with matching gloves, shoes and bag. She wore an amber fox fur. Mr. and Mrs. Jennings sail on June 16th from New York via the Panama Canal for Prince Rupert, where Mr. Jennings will take charge of a mission field, succeeding Canon Ruskbrook, who has been in charge for the past twenty years.
