Enraged Sow Injures Boy
A ninth day boy, 5-year-old boy, had a narrow escape from being torn to pieces by an enraged sow and eight pigs in the barnyard on his father's farm near Arthur last Thursday. The little fellow, with his 8-year-old brother was driving a number of young pigs through a gate when one of them began to squeal. The sow immediately charged the lad, with eight of the young pigs joining in the attack. The boy was knocked down and frightfully bitten and trampled by the swine. His screams were heard by his father, who was working in the barn. The father arrived just in time to save the lad from being fatally torn by the maddened animals. The little boy was removed to Guelph General Hospital, where his condition is serious.

Early Wedding
At the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Jackson, Queen Street, Brampton, a pretty wedding was solemnized Wednesday, Aug. 29th, when their youngest daughter, Edith Marie was married to G. Ewart Early of Toronto son of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Early of Brampton. Rev. Norman Rawson, pastor of St. Paul's United Church, Brampton, conducted the ceremony. The house was prettily decorated with palms, ferns and autumn flowers. The bride who was given in marriage by her father, was charmingly gowned in beigeorgette, brown velour hat and brown suede shoes, wearing for the gift of the groom, Miss Jean Chatter of Brampton rendered the wedding music. A reception was held following the ceremony and a buffet luncheon served. Mr. and Mrs. Early will reside in Toronto on their return from an extended motor tour.

Curves instead of straight lines—that's the latest in automobile fashions, illustrated by these 1928 McLaughlin-Buicks, just introduced. At the left, young Canada, as personified by three youthful inhabitants of McLaughlin-Buick's home city of Oshawa, marvels at the massive new radiator. In the centre is the seven-passenger sedan and above, the sport roadster.
