CANADIAN LEGION AT THE UNITED CHURCH

REV. LEUT.-COL. G. H. WILLIAMS OF HAMILTON PREACHED IMPRESSIVE SERMON TO THE VETERANS

The members of Georgetown Branch Canadian Legion war veterans and other ex-service men, paraded to the United Church on Sunday evening for divine service. There were about twenty-five veterans present. Rev. Dr. Dickie, pastor of the church, spoke words of welcome to the men, after which he introduced Rev. Leut.-Col. G. H. Williams, the speaker of the evening. In response to Rev. Dr. Dickie's words introducing him to the congregation, with which was assembled the Legion, occupying the front portion of the United Church, the Rev. Dr. G. H. Williams of Hamilton expressed the pleasure he had in being present and in bringing the message of the evening. This was the third celebration he had taken part in that day, and in each case the people were out in large numbers. We owe an undying debt of gratitude to the men who went to the front and made the supreme sacrifice and it is fitting that they should not be forgotten by us. Our debt to the heroic dead, however, cannot be paid by merely remembering them on Armistice day. They believed they were fighting for a better world and we cannot honour their memory by trying to fulfill their hope that such a war shall never happen again.

Dr. Williams then announced his text, which was taken from St. John's gospel, the tenth chapter and the twelfth verse—"He calleth his own sheep by name, and leadeth them out." This name, said the speaker, "which we take us back to primitive conditions. You have to think of a time when men were shepherds and herds and the shepherd called his sheep by name. He led out Abram of old, and Moses and all the others of Israel. He led out our own Cabot and Drake and Cook, Wyckoff, and Knox and Wesley and hundreds of others. Three times in the Great War, according to the highest authorities, we were beaten, but we were never defeated. We were driven every time and saved us from defeat. And that something we cannot do in any other way than by calling it the hand of God.

God is a God of adventure. This is seen clearly in the life of Jesus Christ in the life of Paul and in many other heroic lives. Just as surely as we surround ourselves with some comfort, that ourselves, out from others and settle down in ease in some comfortable rest, so surely will we begin to slip away and die. "He that would save his life, said Jesus, shall lose it, but he that loseth his life for My sake shall live."

Since, then, all men are God's sheep, and his interest in them all shows no bounds, as Christ's parables of the lost sheep and the lost son clearly show, how dare we cherish racial animosity and hatred, which leads to war and bloodshed. No call is more urgent than that to use all our influence for the power for the lasting of the day when war with all its horrors shall be forever banished from God's fair earth and men shall live in peace as brothers.

PAST MASTERS NIGHT AT CREDIT LODGE

WAR VETERANS AND PAST MASTERS NIGHT ENJOYED BY A LARGE GATHERING

On Friday evening, November 9th, Credit Lodge V.A.M. held their Past Masters Night which was attended by a large number of the members who had assembled to witness the Past Masters exemplify the First Degree. After the regular business of the Lodge was closed by W. Bro. Simpson received a large deputation of War Veterans who are members of the Credit Lodge and with this and other Lodges.

The Veterans were received with the respect and admiration which they so justly merited because of the great service they had rendered to the Empire during the recent Great War. They decorated with a wreath the picture of our late Bro. Edwin Johnson, who fell in France and Bro. Greenwood recalled that famous poem "In Flanders Fields" which he had recited at a public gathering held in the Credit Lodge all joined in singing that noble and heroic hymn. The Past Masters with W. Bro. E. R. Barracough as Worshipful Master presided over the evening. They conferred a first degree for which they were highly complimented by the Veterans.

Visitors from Streetsville, Milton, Campbellville, Acton, Toronto and other places enjoyed the delightful treat after which the usual toasts to the King and Grand and Grand Lodge were proposed and bestowed. Brother Greenwood delighted the brethren with two recitations and Bro. Black sang two selections which were highly enjoyed by all. W. Bro. Cordery, a Past Master of River Park Lodge, Streetsville was then called on and he gave the brethren very interesting and instructive lecture on his trip through various parts of the Old Land. He alluded to the fact that he had brought to a close one of the happiest events in the history of Credit Lodge.

GREENFELT LABORER MERRION

The following letter has been received acknowledging the receipt of the barrel of preserved fruit sent to this mission by the Georgetown Branch of the Credit Association. Mutton Bay, Canadian Labrador, October 26th, 1928. Dear Co-Workers: The barrel of fruit arrived yesterday. You cannot realize what a great it was to me. I had been so tempted to open a jar for supper. We cannot express in words to you, on paper, how much we appreciate it. Though we get a few native berries, they do not have the same flavor, and we are not getting any more. We were not going to receive any real preserves until we received yours. They certainly arrived in good condition, though on a terribly rough sea and they were not spoiled. Reaching us three days late everything was doubly appreciated. It has been rather a hard fishing year as the white porpoise dried the fish away from the shore. We are hoping to have better seal fishing this winter to make up for it. The weather is beginning to get quite cold. Have had a little snow with a small amount of ice. Thanking you all again, and wishing you every success in your work. Sincerely yours, Basil Hanfill.

CAMERON MEMORIAL FONT UNVEILED IN KNOX CHURCH

At Knox Presbyterian Church on Sunday morning last, a memorial font was unveiled in the sanctuary. The font was dedicated to the memory of Mr. and Mrs. Cameron. Because of the memorial service at the cenotaph, the regular church service was delayed a few minutes, but at 11:15 a.m. a large congregation of members, adherents and visitors were present. The unveiling of the font, which was a beautiful work of art, was presided over by the pastor, Mr. Kenneth MacLean. In his choice of this font he provides the church with an object of ecclesiastical furniture necessary for the work of the church, handsome in design, beautiful in workmanship and representing the latest thought in font construction. After the presentation of the font by Mr. Cameron it was unveiled by Major J. H. Cameron, who had been the guest of the church. The font is a beautiful work of art, and is a fitting memorial to the memory of Mr. and Mrs. Cameron.
