—Firemen's Ball, New Year's Eve, Dec. 31st.
—Alban's Sunday School, Glen Williams, Monday, Dec. 17th.
—Baptist Sunday School entertainment, Wednesday, Dec. 12th.
—Get your Christmas cakes at Livingston's Bakery. Different sizes from $1.00 to $3.25 each.—11.
—Read the advice in the Herald and the suitable Christmas gifts our merchants are offering.
—We thank Messrs. W. T. Evans, Ben Petch and H. E. Minnis for handsome new 1928 calendars.
—James Newton, son of Mr. John Newton, formerly of Linehouse, was elected Mayor of Paris last week.
—We are sorry but a rash of advertisements at the last minute crowded out a number of news items this week.
—The Georgetown Women's Institute have shipped this week a bale of goods valued at $50 to the needy in Northern Ontario.
—Another of those popular dances will be held in the Community Hall at Hamilton on Tuesday evening, Dec. 18th. Transient music, everybody welcome.
—St. George's Sunday School entertainment will be held on Tuesday evening, December 18th. Good program of dialogues, recitations and a cantata.
—All members of Verdun Rebekah Lodge are requested to attend the funeral of our late Sister Mrs. C. T. Armstrong, Noble Grand.
—There was a large attendance at J. M. O'Neill & Son's Radio Demonstration last Saturday. All were delighted with the program furnished by the splendid instruments this firm are selling.

—The regular meeting of the Chamber of Commerce was held last Wednesday evening with the following minutes in the chair. Minutes of previous meeting were read by Secretary, W. T. Evans, and a number of minor matters were discussed.
—One dollar invested in a year's subscription to the improved Family Herald and Weekly Star of Montreal will bring the farmer better dividends than one hundred dollars in the bank. The farmers' wives and daughters get free, the best magazine extant.
—The young people of Waterloo School, S. S. No. 5, Esquevieux, will hold a concert and play at the Waterloo School, Georgetown, on Thursday evening, Dec. 20th.—11.
—Have your eyes examined by O. Walker, Ophthalmologist, at Waterloo School, Georgetown, the second Wednesday of every month, Phone 76 for appointment.—11.

PERSONAL ITEMS

Mr. Alfred McConnell of Quelph was a week end visitor in town.
Mr. George Munn left last week for Orlando, Florida, where he intends to spend the winter.
Rev. Mr. Wase, who has been confined to his home for a couple of weeks is able to be out again.
Mayor Dale, Reegs Near, Councillor MacLaren and W. J. L. Hampshire leave for Ottawa this evening to interview the Government regarding a New Post Office for Georgetown.
Mrs. Hugh B. Gilbert of Roseland, Port-Nelson, received news from Talbot, Alta., of the tragic death of her brother, Robert Blosse, who was driving a team of horses when they ran away and threw him out of the vehicle causing his skull to be fractured. A widow and four small children survive.
Sixty fowl, Plymouth Rocks, were destroyed on the farm of Joe and Arthur Riggs, Brooks, by two dogs, all at once and a part-bred police dog, Mr. Riggs, when he went out to do the chickens at 3:30 a.m. found the dogs in the chicken pen and the torn and mangled bodies of the fowl strewn in all directions. The dogs were later captured and shot.
Election Ward Three
Kindly accept my sincere thanks for your support in the town election for Councillor held last week. May you all have a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.—A. B. Parr.

GENERAL NEWS

Baptist minister made $50,000 speculating in nickel and has gone south for the winter. We presume he became a nickel expert by watching the collection plate.
The home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Currie, Campbellville, was the scene of a happy event when friends to the number of 178 gathered and presented their daughter, Mrs. Cyril A. Killott (nee Blanche Currie), a November bride, with a living room suite and an address.
The first Anglican service held with a view to the establishment of an Anglican church in Brooks was held in the Brooks Baptist Church. The service was conducted by Rev. Dr. H. MacLennan, rector of St. Luke's church, Palermo, who will have charge of this auxiliary work.

COMPARATIVE DADA

"My daddy's better far than your."
Said Clarence William Tate.
"Cause he's a preacher and he's good;
The best man in the State."
"That's all bologna," cried his chum,
"Cause in this neighborhood
My dad is good for NOTHING,
And they PAY yours to be good."

HOPES that the income tax in Canada would shortly be removed were shattered when Minister of Finance Robb, addressing the Canadian Club at Vancouver, stated that while the income tax will be lighter as conditions permit, the tax is going to remain in Canada for a long time.
