IN MEMORIAM OORNER—In loving memory of James Allen Corner, who died Dec. 20th, Never-to-be-forgotten. H. S. Commencement A very enjoyable evening was apent at the High Echool Commencement, at the Town Hall, on Friday evening last. The Hall was nicely decorated for the occasion. The programme began with a plane sole by Charles Kirk.

Charlie has acquired a smooth touch and it is a pleasure to listen to him. Then came the presentation of certificates and diplomas. Lower School honour certificates, were awarded to Piorence Brandford, Arthur Dayfoot,

OBITUARY

BANTA CLAUS.

MRS. G. T. COO was an address by Mr. J. W. Dunlop of Toronto University. Mr. Dunlop spoke in an easy, simple and natural manner. He began in a humorous vein. The Scotchman came in for a hit or two. "How can you ensure for the Scotchman a happy old age?" "Tell him a few good jokes when he is young." Mr. Dunlop gave the young ward. Deceased was born in London, people at school a lot of sound advice about improving their opportunities. He spoke about the choice of a profession and showed how that difficult band to Georgetown on June 16, 1836.

A very amusing number was the boys' drill. They went through a series of movements with their backs to the audence but with false faces on the back of their heads. The result was as mirth-provoking a performance as was ever seen on a stage.

The list number was a song by Mrs. Black. Mrs. Black has a rich, rare, we might say, unique quality of aito. Miss Maud McDonald accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Black's nong.

"God save the King", which is sung these days with meaning, closed an evening well spent.
